POETRY

HOME
Home again and home to stay,
No power on earth can take me
away.
My mind is set like a block of concrete
And nobody can budge my feet
Or lure me out of my retreat.

It is not new and it is not gay,
But I have just one tune to play
And that tune will always be
Just "Home Sweet Home" to me.

Hamburger, teebone, sirloin steak,
I have seen them all in my survey,
And a little town with one main street

Right in the hub where all folks meet.
I still love my home and my retreat.

Ma. Vike

Rain Causes Trouble For Former Resident; Buck Reported Wary

RIVERVIEW—George Wirtz, a former resident, now of Lancaster, Calif., where it seldom rains, sends the following script: "It rained here Thursday and Friday and I caught a bad cold that settled in my back and Friday morning I started to clean my pigpens and the darn thing came apart and I had to go to an osteopath and have it put back together. Its still kind of sore. Maybe it is alright to be where it rains oftener." George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wirtz. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lahmers spent the week end at the Walter Moore home. Mr. Lahmers and his host took an early morning spin in search of deer but saw only some tracks. Those bucks are sure wary this season.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Want a Vacation from Marriage?

Alvin Blake went south on his vacation, for some fishing, and left his Missus to enjoy a vacation from the corn-cob pipe, clothes in a heap, and solos on the harmonica.

From where I sit, those differences of habit and opinion—whether they have to do with corn-cob pipes, a glass of beer, or playing the harmonica, seem mighty trivial when you're separated. And they are, too!

GRANGERS SHAPE THE PATTERN of OREGON'S DEVELOPMENT

Livestock is big business in Oregon—and Grangers have a big stake in the industry.

According to the bureau of agricultural economics, Washington, D. C., gross farm returns in Oregon from livestock and livestock products for the year 1945 totaled $136,431,000. This is real wealth, created by farmers, spent in the channels of Oregon trade, benefiting progressive citizens who, like Grangers, take pride in building a great commonwealth.

Thirty thousand alert, forward-looking farmers are members of the Oregon State Grange. They are directed by these common motives—better living and working conditions; a very real desire to continue shaping the pattern of Oregon's development for the good of all.
