MISCELLANEOUS

No depression will worry you... no seasonal or industrial "laidoffs"... no fear of unemployment... no housing problems to beset you... no worries over medical, dental or hospital bills... excellent food and clothing all provided.

A good starting salary with almost certain regular increases. A fat monthly retirement income for life after 20 years' service (much greater after 30 years). All these advantages and many more are yours. IF you can qualify for enlistment in the NEW regular United States Army. You'd better hurry, as qualifications for enlistment are being steadily raised.

That's right. Enlistment in the finest army in the world is your guaranteed insurance of "freedom from want" now, or at any time as long as you live. Here is one example of monthly Army pay—and just as a private:

Base Pay $ 75.00
Allowance Wife and Child 58.00
(until war officially ends)
Food, clothes, housing 43.00
Medical and dental care 8.00
Insurance 13.50
Travel, Laundry Misc. 12.00
Annuity for Retirement as
M-Sgt., after 20 years
(Paid by U.S.) 103.28

Total 312.78
Income Tax you don't pay 30.08
Grand Total $342.86

Are you doing as well now, month in and month out, year in and year out. Think it over—then act. Go in and discuss your particular problem with the U.S. Army Recruiting officer nearest you—TODAY.

Sec'y to Speak; Housing Short

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson will be the principal speaker at the 80th annual convention of the national grange, which opens in Portland, November 13, according to an announcement made a few days ago by Morton Tompkins, master of the Oregon state grange. Anderson is tentatively scheduled to address the session Friday afternoon, November 15.

Anderson will also be a member of a class of some 5000 or more persons from all over the nation who will receive the Seventh Degree, highest in grange ritual, on the evening of November 14 at the Portland municipal auditorium.

Anticipating record attendance which will tax the hotel facilities of Portland, Alvin Hobart, chairman of the grange housing and transportation committee, has been requested by the hotels of the city to set a deadline of October 31, after which the committee will no longer accept reservations. Reservations made prior to that date should be addressed to the Oregon State Grange, 1135 S. E. Salmon, Portland 14, Oregon. An advance deposit of $5.00 must accompany each request.

Birthday Events Told in Letter

RIVERVIEW — Member that Sidney Shepard family that lived between Eighth and Ninth streets during World War II? Here are some excerpts from a letter received from Mrs. Shepard this week: "I had some birthday, no kidding. First thing in the morning we caught a civet cat in a trap. Wow. Then Donald and Paul got a gift of a pet fawn from a neighbor and many came to see it. A neighbor lady came with gifts and flowers and we had coffee and jelly roll. The mail brought cards and gifts from home and friends. And in the evening my neighbors gave me a grand surprise party. Boy, was I excited! My old heart was doing double. All brought lovely gifts and ice cream and cake were in abundance. So I really had some birthday. The boys are working. Ray is a choker setter and Bill has a power saw. No strike here. Ray got a buck Monday. We have a cow, some chickens and a nice garden. P.S. My Eagle ran out so I thought I would discontinue it, but do miss it and must subscribe for it again.—Edna."

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gilbert Abney and son, Jimmie, of Wishram, Washington, arrived at the parental P. L. Welter home here Friday evening and on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Abney left on a three-week's vacation trip that will take them to Idaho for a visit with friends and on to Kansas where most of their time will be spent with relatives. In the meantime the Welters are pleased to have their little grandson as their house guest.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Leath spent Saturday in Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwab spent that day in Vancouver, Washington.

Mrs. C. E. George and Mrs. Vern Jacobson and son, George, of Portland were Saturday guests at the C. N. Rundell home.

Walter Moore took his mother, Mrs. C. T. Moore, to Portland Wednesday from which point she returned to her home in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel West came Friday from Oregon City to spend a long week end at the parental T. F. Hillyer home.

Mrs. Louis Huntley was in Portland Monday afternoon of last week to see her husband who has undergone a major operation at the Emmanuel hospital Saturday. She found him resting quite comfortably.

Sunday visitors at the T. M. Crawford home were Mr. and Mrs. Middleton Crawford and son, Dennis, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Gibson and family were Forest Grove goers Saturday.

Miss Irene Rockey of St. Helens spent the week end at the Anna Parker home.

Mrs. Gertrude Davis spent Monday in Forest Grove.

Word from the Portland hospital is to the effect that George Sanders and Joe Peachey are improving.
