Club Leaders Meet Reported

By EDNA FULLER and NANCY FLETCHER

L. E. Rennells of Deer Island presided at the annual meeting of 4-H club leaders of Columbia and Washington counties held at the Deer Island fair grounds October 19. He was presented with a 15-year leadership pin. The pin, an opal mounted in gold, is purchased by the United States National Bank of Portland and was presented by L. J. Allen, Oregon state 4-H club leader.

Mrs. Alma Logan of Caanan is also a 15-year member for whom a pin is coming. In addition there are seven other leaders in the two counties eligible for 15-year pins.

The Yankton grange plans to offer two 4-H club scholarships

Enlistment Rules In Army Raised

Qualifications necessary for enlistment in the new streamlined United States army are constantly being increased as recruiting quotas are filled, according to a communique issued by the sixth army recruiting headquarters, Presidio of San Francisco, which advised prompt action on the part of those seeking to make the army a career.

Indicative of this trend is the lead now being given men who have a military occupational specialty (MOS). These men may be enlisted in a grade appropriate to experience and training, regardless of whether they served in the army, the navy, marine corps or coast guard, if they enlist before their occupational quota is reached, the 6th army recruiting headquarters pointed out.
