GRANGERS SHAPE THE PATTERN of OREGON'S DEVELOPMENT

You may be surprised at the size of Oregon's dairying industry. But Grangers aren't. The value of the state's dairy products last year is estimated by the U.S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics at $40,657,000—money from milk that flows through every trading level to every Oregonian. Through the years, the Grange has worked for a bigger and better dairying industry as one phase of its program to build a greater commonwealth by strengthening its most important foundation—agriculture. Thirty thousand Oregon Grange members—all forward-thinking farmers—strive constantly for agricultural progress. This, they know, shapes the pattern of Oregon's development the right way, because what helps the farmer helps every Oregonian.

- Grange achievements that have made Oregon a better state in which to live:
- ✓ R. F. D. Routes
 - ✓ Direct Election of Senators
 - ✓ Cooperative Marketing
 - ✓ Better Roads
 - ✓ Improvements in Education
 - ✓ Graduated Income Tax
 - ✓ Improved Marketing
 - ✓ Low-Cost Light and Power
