BOWLERS FORM 2 NEW LEAGUE TEAMS, PLAY

By MELVIN SCHWAB

This week saw the formation of two more bowling teams for the rapidly growing bowling league in Vernonia. The two new teams are Oregon-American and the Palace Cafe, which brings the total to four teams now competing in this new sport.

First competition was exceptionally close with a total of only nine pins difference in the three games played.

The teams and points made by the respective players were as follows:

Oregon-American—
Fetsch 144 116 161—427
Hudson 144 149 163—456
McCord 89 154 115—358

Palace averaged 140.

Frank Chaney announced this week also that there is now in progress a singles championship in which anyone, that feels he or she is a pretty good bowler can compete. There is a $2.00 entry fee for the event and the playoff will start the 15th of February. The entry fee of $2.00 will be totaled up and awards for the event will be as follows: First will be 50 per cent of all entry fees taken in; second, 30 per cent and third, 20 per cent.

There will be another game Monday night.

VETERAN UNEMPLOYMENT CLAIMS DECLINE

Veterans of World War II drawing unemployment allowances, after hitting a peak of 1,808,000 last April, had declined to 1,027,300 by the end of October, according to reports by various State Unemployment Compensation Boards to the Veterans Administration. Each figure in the above pictograph represents 200,000 claims.
