The Cozy

About $95 Is Program Net

MIST—A splendid program consisting mostly of comedy and music was given Wed. eve. by the grade school pupils under the direction of Miss Kauppi and Mrs. Grey. A pie social followed the program with Austin Corll ably chanting the bids. The major portion of net proceeds, approximately $95.00, is held in reserve for the benefit of a community kitchen. The details are not yet worked out. The Mist Helping Circle is holding the money and there will probably be more of these socials to augment the kitchen fund. For certain the community needs nothing as badly at present as a kitchen and dining space. A beautifully decorated cake was presented Mr. Corll with his name inscribed in appreciation of his willingness to help. The attendance was good and the bidding spirited.

One of those aluminum dinners was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sundland Mon. eve. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Melis, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. Rob't. Mathews, Austin Corll and Mrs. Grey.

Mrs. Austin Dowling received a shipment of baby chix last week.

L. P. Wickstrom, Sr., received word his brother and family were arriving for a visit from Minnesota this week.

Mrs. Chas. Hansen was in Clatskanie Sat.

According to Sterling Hart, editor of the Commerce (Tex.)

Journal, the Texas-grown Bois d'Arc timber, which is also known as the Osage Orange of Arkansas, is possibly the most durable of American woods. One lot of timber, after 40 years' service in a railroad bridge, is now being used on his farm for fence posts with the soundness unimpaired. Another lot used for 50 years as telephone poles shows no signs of decay.
