Pomona Grange Adopts Resolution Favoring Special 3-Mill Tax Levy

Columbia County Pomona Grange met at Yankton Grange hall Saturday, February 7th for the regularly quarterly meeting, Canaan Grange entertaining. Among the guests of the day were Charles Wicklander, state Grange Deputy, and Mrs. Wicklander of the state grange juvenile committee.

Much interest is being shown in the National Grange contest for community service and all the Granges are urged to compete. Among projects suggested are parks, highway safety, community clean-up activities, school or church projects, health projects including hospitals, rural recreation or any other activity which may serve the respective communities. Two Granges, Marshland and Warren have already enlisted in the contest. The National Grand Prize will be a $12,000 Grange hall.

A resolution was adopted recommending a special 3-mill tax for the improvement of roads in the county.

A seed and plant exchange under the sponsorship of the Pomona home economics committee was held during the day and a home economics conference was held with ideas exchanged. Mrs. Wicklander met with those interested in juvenile Grange work.

An event of the Lecturer's program in the evening was the presentation of Silver Star Certificates to John and Pearl Becker in recognition of their having been Grange members for 25 years. Charles Wicklander, State Deputy made the presentation.

Slides were shown by county agricultural agent of specimens of vegetation, both desirable and undesirable, and showing the effect of spraying for weed control. A brief talk was given also by the new 4-H agent, Mr. Dahl.

Members were present from all Granges except from Winema.

Eighty-five per cent of urban residents in the United States receive all their milk by truck.
