Double-ring Ceremony Unites Couple Sunday

Mrs. Bernice Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, and Thomas Osborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bittner, of Vernonia were united in marriage Sunday, May 9 in Vancouver, Washington on the lawn at the home of Rev. Paul Runzman with a double ring ceremony at 12 noon.

The bride wore an ice blue suit and carried a corsage of red rosebuds.

Her sister, Iris Sears, was maid of honor. Flower girls were Paulette and Deanna, daughters of the bride and groom. They wore dresses of peach taffeta trimmed in ice blue and carried bouquets of sweet peas and rosebuds. Best man was Larry Flemming.

About 100 guests were entertained at a reception held at the groom's home in Portland.

The house was decorated with tulips and primroses. The three-layer wedding cake was decorated with silver leaves and pink rosebuds topped with a miniature bridal couple and was served by the bride's mother, Mrs. George Turner. Mrs. John Rohrbach poured coffee and punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborn will make their home in Forest Grove where he is employed by the Natal Logging company.

Mother's Day Addenda Highlights Meeting

A clever Mother's Day addenda, directed by Molly Eby, was one of the highlights of the Nehalem Chapter, O.E.S., meeting Wednesday evening. Initiatory degrees were given Helen Peterson and a lovely O.E.S. Jewel was presented her by Paul Gordon from her husband, E. W. Peterson.

Vicki Nanson was elected associate conductress to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Katherine Johns who was unable to continue because of ill health and Lucille Tomlin was appointed to the office of Ruth. These members were then installed by Bertie Mills, Past Matron.

A delicious lunch was served in the social hall, the tables being very attractively decorated with tapers, blossoms and Mother's Day greetings.

Mothers Honored at Church Services Sun.

The Mother's Day services at the Christian church were well attended. After a short program by the youngsters, each mother was presented with a potted plant.

The Junior choir sang a special Mother's Day song at the evening service at 5:30.

The regular church night supper was held last Wednesday night. Little Miss Billye Knodler only 8 years old, baked the May birthday cake.

G. W. Anderson, young minister from Palouse, Washington will be here for a trial sermon on Sunday, May 23. Members of the congregation are urged to hear him.

Basic Tools Studied At Extension Meet

The Vernonia unit of the home extension met last Thursday at the Legion hall. Mrs. Maud Casswell of St. Helens was present and gave the demonstration lesson on basic tools.

Paper sack lunches were brought and this meeting was pretty well attended. A meeting will be held on the first Thursday of June in the Legion hall and the discussion at that time will be on arranging flowers.

Foreign Missionary Society to Meet

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Nazarene church will meet at the home of Mrs. Foster Wanamaker in River-view, Thursday at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Harry Russell will be in charge of the study.

Young Adults Enjoy Social Gathering

The Young Adult class of the First Christian church enjoyed a social gathering in the church parlor Friday evening, May 7. A large number attended. Games were played and refreshments were served.
