Altar Society Ladies Talk Fund Raising

Twelve ladies attended the meeting of the Altar Society Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Wirtz in Riverview.

A food sale and other fund raising diversions were planned with a full set of sales ladies and committees for other activities being readily found among those present. Three new names, Mrs. Dale Bartlett, Mrs. R. Kono and Mrs. Dessy Laird were added to the membership list.

A beautiful pair of pillow cases was donated to be used with the tickets now on sale.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Joe VanderZanden and Mrs. Alois Sauer in serving lunch. Mrs. Kenneth Anderson will be hostess to the society in November.

Progressive Dinner Honors Church Couple

Saturday Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Russell were invited to a 6 o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wanamaker. Upon their arrival they found a large group of young people waiting to help them enjoy the evening. It turned out to be a five course chicken dinner served in the form of a treasure hunt. After the first course at the Wanamaker home an envelope was handed to them giving directions for the next stop. The second course was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Brown in Riverview, the third by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Russell, the fourth by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hibbs and the fifth by Mr. and Mrs. Elgus Frank. At the close of the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Russell were handed a flashlight and told it was time to reveal the treasure. They were escorted outside and after looking around for some time found two large boxes tightly packed and overflowing with groceries and a box of chocolates for the preacher's wife. Thirty-eight people enjoyed the evening which closed with the group singing choruses and prayer by the Young People's president.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Schedule Hardtime Party

The grand officers and district officers of the Neighbors of Woodcraft are unable to be present this evening so the local circle will have a Hallowe'en Hardtime party instead. Families and their friends are invited to attend.

A prize will be awarded the person wearing the best hardtime costume and fines will be levied for not dressing for the occasion.

Remodeling Hats Shown At Keasey Unit Meeting

The first official meeting of the Keasey unit was held last Wednesday, October 13 at the home of Iva Gillham where Mrs. Maude Casswell demonstrated how to remodel old felt hats that had been collecting dust on the closet shelf. She showed how to steam and press and reshape a hat, how to clean and brush it with a rubber sponge and make the felt look like new. She modeled hats on the members to show that a turned-up brim accentuated a turned-up nose, that a pill-box cannot be worn successfully with glasses unless softened by a veil and that many black hats can be immensely improved by a touch of color. By four o'clock, at least six members had completely rejuvenated their hats and several more had ideas to take home and work on. During the middle of the day, Irving Conklin arrived to take pictures of the group at work.

An excellent potluck luncheon was provided by Margaret Berndt,

Julia Boeck, Alice Bradley, Gladys Conklin, Eva Jean DeVaney, Blanche DeWitt, Sue Eagan, Iva Gillham, Martha Judd, Hilda Keasey, Florence and Bertha Kirkbride, May Krieger and Lillian Schooley.

Sisterhood to Meet

Mrs. Harry Sandon will be hostess to the P.E.O. Sisterhood Tuesday evening, October 26. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Fred Tousley.

Mrs. Cockrell Surprised

A birthday party honored Mrs. Laura Cockrell Wednesday evening. Host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Bud McKinister. Relatives and friends were invited to help enjoy the birthday dinner.

Marthas to Meet

The Martha Circle of the Evangelical United Brethren church will meet at the home of Mrs. George Roland October 27 at 2 p.m.
