District 1 Conference Planned for Saturday

The District No. 1 conference of the American Legion and Auxiliary will be held here Saturday and all members of both groups are asked to attend the sessions. Conferences will start at two o'clock, the Auxiliary meeting in the hall and the Legion in the clubroom. Legionnaires will go to the Joy Theater if more room than the clubroom provides is needed.

Department officers attending the Auxiliary session will be Mrs. Mitchell Thorn of The Dalles, president; Mrs. W. W. Graham, vice-president of Corvallis; Mrs. Mae E. Whitcomb, Portland, secretary; Mrs. C. Harold Moyer, Astoria, district president, who will preside over the meeting; Mrs. Hazel Alden, Seaside, historian; Mrs. Floyd Reith, Astoria, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Ethel A. Doyle, Beaverton, district child welfare chairman; Mrs. Lloyd M. Jones, Sherwood, past president's parley chairman and Mrs. Arthur Steele, Clatskanie, ritualistic drill chairman.

Following the dinner in the evening will be a program of local talent.

Neighbors Install New Officers April 7

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held their installation of officers Thursday, April 7 with Alice Lindsay as installing officer. New officers for this year are Harry Culbertson, Guardian Neighbor; Robert Lindsay, Past Guardian Neighbor; advisor, June Willis; magician, Tressie Michener; banker, Erma Johnson; clerk, Nola Brady; managers, Alice Lindsay, Fannie Owens and Leon Keith; captain of guards, Nona Lankston; inner sentinel, Lester McGee; outer sentinel, John Lankston; musician, Erma Johnson and correspondent, Nola Brady.

Past Guardian Neighbor pins were presented to Alice and Robert Lindsay by Harry Culbertson.

The installation was very nicely put on by captain of the guards, Nona Lankston and her team.

Afterwards, a lunch of ice cream and cake was served in the dining hall. The next meeting will be held in the Legion hall.

Vernonia Unit Studies Blouse in a Day

The Vernonia extension unit met at the high school home ec room on April 7 with 9 members present. The lesson on "Blouse in a Day" was given by Mrs. Casswell. A new apron pattern was displayed by Mrs. Casswell. By using this pattern two aprons can be made out of one yard of material.

Step-saving kitchen lessons will be given by Mrs. Casswell on Wednesday May 4 at the home of Mrs. Viola Eckland. At this meeting the nominating committee will report on the new officers for the coming year.

On May 9 Mrs. Casswell will give an evening lesson on simple entertaining in the home of Wau-neta Timmons. Highlights of the evening will be a showing of colored films on table setting.

Special School Meet Held Mon.

MIST — Joseph Banzer is home from the hospital in Portland where he has been for the past six weeks. He's pretty weak but doing very well.

The Wikstrom mill is taking time to move to another tree this week. It should be ready to go again Friday.

A special school meeting was held Monday evening to settle some important matters and it was a big attendance that turned out. Some heavy arguments were used, but eventually the question was settled for the time being. Another meeting is due later.

Melvin Saxton is finishing up another room on their home the past week during time he is off work and evenings.

District President Pays Official Visit

District President Mrs. Harold Moyer of Astoria paid her official visit to the American Legion Auxiliary here on April 5. Committee meetings were held in the afternoon and a lovely pot-luck dinner was served at seven preceding the meeting.

During the evening meeting Mrs. Moyer dedicated the colors which the Auxiliary recently purchased. Since the month of April is Child Welfare month, a greater part of the business was devoted to that subject.

Plans for the Easter egg hunt were completed and preparations were started to send a girl to Girl's State for the summer session. Margaret Walrath will head this committee.

prising! We have heard from many sources that Miss Olga Holmstrom had passed away. Such is not so as ye scribe had a letter Friday from her. She is well and apparently happy.

Mrs. George Grace and three children from Portland spent the week end at the Robert Berg home.

Miss Shirley Berg was home over Easter from Portland where she is attending business college.

There was a party for the young people at the Les Closer home Friday evening.

Mrs. Chas. Sundland and Mrs. I. E. Knowles went to A. R. Mills home Wednesday to attend the Missionary society.

Logging Equipment to Be Placed on Calif. Job

MIST — Bud Henderson returned from California last week end got his log truck and out, taking the machinery to California where he has work for it. Arthur Siegenthaler returned with him.

The Leonard Egertons will soon move into the tenement over the Mist store owned by Walter Matthews.

We hear that Art Grenfeld, a former resident of the village is critically ill. We are sorry to hear it.

Mrs. Lew Choate was up to see her brother Art Grenfeld the last of the week in McMinnville.
