Eagles Drop First Game

The Vernonia Eagles dropped a 6-5, decision to the St. Helens Sash and Door team in the opening softball game of the season at St. Helens Tuesday night. Andy Killian and Bob Sunnell combined efforts in the pitcher's box for the Eagles to hold the Door men to one hit, but erratic fielding mixed with numerous bases on balls plus failure to hit in the clutches spelled defeat for the Vernonia club.

St. Helens crossed the plate three times in the first inning without the aid of a hit and added one in each of the second, fourth and sixth innings.

The Eagles chalked up four runs in the sixth frame and added their final tally in the seventh with pitcher Jensen bearing down to retire the local team with the bases full in both the final innings. The Eagles found the offerings of Jensen for three hits, one each by Manager Bob Cline, Vince Williams and Sunnell, but could not connect with runners on base.

The first home league game for Vernonia will be next Tuesday night at eight o'clock when Burghers of St. Helens will tangle with the Eagles at the city park.

legislators, and others. Beck's talk was on "Growing Pains" in which he compared Oregon to a boy of 12 or 14 with many problems to solve in answering immediate needs to take care of 300,000 new people. Industrial development must solve our economic problems, especially by hydro-electric power, sustained yield of agriculture, and other means of supplying the needs of the citizens. We also must have something to sell to the east in return for manufactured goods we buy from them.

Dr. Zeschin of St. Helens talked on socialized medicine and brought out points unfavorable to proposed legislation along this line.

County agent Jerry Nibler talked on agricultural matters and also gave a demonstration of mole trapping. He had samples of two vicious weeds, gorse and tansy ragwort which has become established near Delena. Jack Sather from the Clatskanie Farm Bureau talked in this problem also and asked the co-operation of the Grange in helping eradicate these weeds while they are limited to a small territory.

Mrs. Ione Backlund of the hospital committee reported improved chances of getting a hospital since a bill was signed by the legislature to make it more possible to proceed in this depart-

Memorial services were held for seven members who have died during the past year, after which a Lecturer's program of readings and music was enjoyed by all. Thirty candidates were initiated in the Fifth Degree.

The next meeting of Pomona Grange will be held at Clatskanie in August. A committee was appointed to plan for the annual Grange picnic at Big Eddy park in July as follows: Ralph Langdon, George Nelson, Jerry Nibler, Harold Black, and Mrs. Vera Parche, Pomona Lecturer.
