Old Residents Look Up Friends

MIST — Mrs. Fred Wilson from Portland has been a recent guest of Mrs. J. O. Libel.

Theodore Jackson of Long Beach, Washingtin was in the village Monday looking up old acquaintances of 50 or more years ago. The Jacksons or Jacobsons as they were known, homesteaded over 60 years ago a place we remember well when we came in years later. It had a little cabin partly of logs still left, an old well partly caved in and remnants of a cleared field, now all grown up with brush and trees. Mr. Jacobson stopped at the Knowles farm to renew old friendships.

Mrs. M. Wilson on the Burn continues about the same.

Mrs. L. Wikstrom and Shirley were movies visitors in Clatskanie Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lloyd Garlock, keeps house for her mother-in-law, Mrs. Alma Garlock, while the ladies went to camp meeting.

Annie Shedwin and two of her sisters and a niece were in the villarge last week. They are old timers of early days. Some older residents will remember them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Schroder and Peter and Cliff Salmi and Janet from Marshland spent Tuesday evening with the Chas. Hansen family. Mrs. Schroder and Mrs. Hansen are sisters and Mr. Salmi is a brother.

Couple to Attend Races in Montana

TREHARNE — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reynolds and family and Mr. and Mrs. Don Reynolds and Velma Snyder spent Monday at the beach.

Don Reynolds, Floyd Snyder and Forest Reynolds visited with Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dodge at Portland Meadows Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dodge and Speed Lusby have gone to Montana for the race meets. They expect to be gone three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hall from Seattle are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tisdale for a while. Mr. Tisdale is very poorly at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Davenport visited at Ontario during the shut down.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burke and granddaughter of Woodland, Washington visited at the Peterson home also relatives at Sunset camp.

Beck Thompson was home over the week end. He is employed in Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Brady spent the week end at Glenoma, Washington visiting Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brady and family.

Mrs. M. J. Rae from Upton, California is visiting her cousin, Mrs. N. B. Johnson. She came by way of Grants Pass visiting relatives there.

M.H.C. Meeting Date Set for Thursday

MIST — Mrs. G. Ellis has spent a week with Mrs. Chas. Hansen. Mrs. Ellis lives in Forest Grove.

M. H. C. will meet at Mrs. Knowles next week, Thursday. Members keep it in mind.

Mrs. J. O. Libel has her daughter, Mrs. Ed Lindberg, and Larry from St. Helens as her guest this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ward from Clatskanie were in the village Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Tiderman of Jewell were dinner guests Wednesday of the Chas. Hansen family. Mr. Tiderman fell and hurt his shoulder quite badly. An x-ray did not show any bones broken.

Week End Spent Here by Guests

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crayle of Seattle, Washington and Mrs. Edith Crayle of Tacoma, Washington spent the week end at the W. D. Steele home. Mrs. Crayle is Mr. Steele's sister.

The people of Riverview extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. Ancel Roberts in the loss of her husband.
