Miss Weidman Wedded At Candlelight Service

Miss Vona Weidman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Weidman of Vernonia, was married at an impressive candlelight service Saturday evening, July 16, to Mr. Alexander Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Harvey, Sr., of Portland. Rev. Allen H. Backer performed the ceremony in a setting of gladioli and baby breath in the auditorium of the Evangelical U. B. church.

Mrs. Tommy Lou Reznich of Portland and Miss Florence Berger of Vernonia lighted the tapers preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Zola Hescocock of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Lois Clark of Vernonia sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer." Pianist and organist were Mrs. Lois Clark and Mrs. Louise Thomas.

Mrs. Alta Wuthrick, attired in a Nile green bouffant taffetta gown with matching headdress, was matron of honor. Miss Neoma McMullen was bridesmaid and wore a similar frock of yellow and both carried nosegays of white gladiol and pastel shades of sweet peas and rosebuds.

Little Ramona Robertson, whose pink dress patterned those of the attendants, dropped flowers from a floral covered basket. David Harvey III, small nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and lace with an illusion veil falling to her finger tips. A rhinestone and blue zircon necklace, a wedding gift from the groom, completed the lovely ensemble and she carried an orchid on her white Bible.

Best man for his brother was David Harvey, Jr., of Portland. Bob Hansman of Portland and Lorin Weidman of Vernonia ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Cutting the beautifully decorated cross shaped wedding cake for the 180 guests was Mrs. Henry John of Sweet Home. Mrs. Elgus Frank of Vernonia assisted. Mrs. Inez Powell of Vernonia presided at the coffee table and Mrs. E. J. Douglas of Vernonia served the punch. Mrs. Margaret Hartzell had charge of the guest book and assisting throughout the parlors were: Mary Ann Clark, Dorothy Backer, Lesta Garner, Beth Backer, Leah Stiff, Mrs. Alice Malmstein, Mrs. Isola Morris and Mrs. Erma Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey are now at home in Seattle following a short honeymoon trip.

Odd Fellows Stage Initiatory, Entertain

Those taking the initiatory were Donald Zuroff and Don P. (Red) O'Brien.

Lodges represented were: Woodlawn 10, Clatskanie 3, Seaside 3, Corvallis 1, Vermillion, So. Dak. 1 and Vernonia 31. Ice cream and homemade pie was served by the Rebekahs.

The initiatory degree will be given again Tuesday, July 26.

Stars Slate Picnic

The Eastern Star annual family picnic will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday, July 31, at Rogers park. The members of the local Masonic lodge will be their guests for the pot-luck dinner.

An estimated 40,000 gold seekers crossed the continent to reach California in 1849.

CUTTING the cake at the reception which followed their wedding June 18 at Corvallis are Mr. and Mrs. Mance L. Rose. The bride is the former Miss Ilione Schenk of Corvallis and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rose of Vernonia.

Corvallis Church Rite Unites Couple June 18

Miss Ilione Schenk, daughter of Mrs. Clarence Wesley Kienle and the late John Fredrick Schenk of Corvallis, became the bride of Mance L. Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rose of Vernonia, at a ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening, Saturday, June 18, in the First Methodist church at Corvallis. The Reverend Clarence W. Reynolds read the double ring service.

The altar of the church was flanked by palms, tall baskets of yellow and white eremurius, and candelabra holding white tapers.

Before the ceremony, Donald Marley, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. W. F. Gaskins, sang "Because." As the dedication song, Mr. Marley sang "Delta Delta Delta Wedding Hymn."

Given in marriage by her brother, John H. Schenk of Corvallis, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, made on train. Her fingertip veil of illusion net fell from a Juliet cap of lace which matched the paneled lace bib on the bodice of her gown, and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

The bride's attendants wore marquisette gowns with matching mitts and picture hats, and carried matching nosegays. Miss Jeanne Doris Stoner of Ridgefield, Washington, as maid of honor, wore a yellow gown, while Mrs. C. Stanley Rondeau and Mrs. Lawrence E. Underwood of Corvallis, as bridesmaids, wore gowns of aqua blue. Little Miss Dona Lee Kienle, as flower girl, was dressed similarly to the maid of honor, wearing a yellow marquisette gown and matching picture hat. Allen Shevaller, wearing a white linen suit and carrying a white satin pillow, served as ring bearer.

Mrs. Ralph H. Nielson, wearing a gown of apple green taffeta, and Mrs. Earle L. Gateg, wearing a lavender gown, lighted the altar tapers before the ceremony. They carried white tapers set in pastel nosegay bases.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kienle wore a gown of dusty rose crepe with gray accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Rose, mother of the groom, wore a gown of pastel pink with white accessories and a corsage similar to that of the bride's mother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Blue Room of the Hotel Corvallis. Cutting the cake were Mrs. George Y. Martin and Mrs. Frank Warner of Corvallis, while Mrs. Ralph H. Nielson, Mrs. Earle L. Greig, Miss Marylouise Allen and Mrs. Robert J. Fink assisted with the serving. Frank Warner and George Y. Martin attended the punch bowl, and Miss Elinor Paulson had charge of the guest book.

For going away, the bride wore an hand-tailored suit of navy blue gabardine with accessories of navy blue suede and natural straw. Her corsage was of white orchids. The couple's wedding trip included tours of the Oregon beaches, and Odell, Crescent, Davis and Twin Lakes.

The bride, who was graduated from Corvallis high school, attended Brenau College for Women at Gainesville, Georgia, where she became affiliated with Delta Delta Delta social fraternity for women. She serves as social editor of the Corvallis Gazette-Times. Mr. Rose a graduate of Vernonia high school serves as district circulation manager of the Gazette-Times and will continue his studies next fall as a senior student in the school of business and technology at Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose are at home at 960 Adams street, Corvallis.

Bride-elect Honored At Shower Tuesday

The social hall of the Evangelical U. B. church was the scene of a delightfully appointed bridal shower honoring Miss Vona Weidman on Tuesday evening, July 12. The hall was beautifully decorated with ocean spray, roses, lilies and delphinium. The many lovely gifts were arranged on a table centered by a large bride doll. During the evening, Mrs. Allan Backer read several selections featuring advice to the bride, and Mrs. Lois Clark played a medley of love songs. After the bride-elect had opened and displayed her gifts, delicious refreshments of Bavarian cream, wafers and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Edgar Hartzell, Elgus Frank, E. J. Douglass and E. E. Garner.
