Double Ring Rite at San Mateo Unites Couple Early in September

Bouquets of baby breath decorated the aisle of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Burlingame for the 8 o'clock double ring rites September 10 which united in marriage Beverly June Bateman of San Mateo and Lloyd Melvin Powell of Vernonia.

The Rev. Francis Foote performed the ritual at a candle-light ceremony. The bride was escorted to the altar by her step father, Irvin P. Larsen of San Mateo.

Her gown was of white satin styled with a high neck filled in with net and embroidered with flowers. Long sleeves, a close fitting bodice, bustle back and long train completed the styling of the frock. The bride wore a fingertip veil of French illusion which cascaded from a tiara of orange blossoms.

She carried a shower of white roses and bouvardia.

Jean McDonald of Portland, preceded the bride down the aisle as honor maid. Other attendants included Sue Anne King, the bride's sister, and Doris Mae Williams of San Mateo, her cousin.

All the attendants were gowned alike in ice blue satin with a net yoke, and full skirt. They donned matching mitts and carried American Beauty roses and wore circlets of the same flowers in their hair.

The honor maid's bouquet was of American Beauty roses and blue delphinium.

Penny and Kathleen Blowers of San Mateo, small cousins of the bride, were flower girls and donned long white organdy frocks tied with blue satin sashes for their duties. They carried blue satin baskets filled with white

A four tiered square wedding cake centered the bride's table where white flowers and blue satin ribbon decorated the outer edges.

When the justweds left on a wedding trip to Carmel and the north, the new Mrs. Powell was wearing a royal blue bolero suit of gabardine with a white blouse and American Beauty rose velvet beret. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Study Project of Year Started by Club

Mrs. Henry Schlegel, Jr., entertained members of The Vernonia Study club October 6 when the study project of the year got underway with the first of four programs on theatre being very ably given by Mrs. Sam Hearing, Jr.

"The Theatre" by Sheldon Cheney is the text following and is a "history of 300 years of drama, acting and stage craft. Beginning with the primitive dances, it traces the growth of the physical stage, changes in acting and tells the story of the writing of plays and where theatre as we know it today came into being." Many anecdotes and sidelights make reading the volume easy and entertaining, but it contains so much information that an entire year could be given to its study.

The presentation of this first section of the most purposeful outline undertaken by this group in some years clearly indicates a busy year for club members.

During the business meeting the forthcoming Red Feather drive was announced by the civic chairman, Mrs. A. J. Hughes.

A change in the date for the next meeting was made. It will be held on Friday evening, October 21 instead of the date as scheduled.

At that time Mrs. Harry Sandon will be hostess and will also have charge of the program.

Conference Slated

An American Legion and Auxiliary conference will be held at Hillsboro on October 16 at 2 o'clock with banquet in the evening. Headquarters will be at the Legion club house. Past and unit officers are urged to attend and members also.
