

Revival Present For Second Week

Special revival meetings are being continued this week at the Assembly of God church with Dick Colson as evangelist. Interest and attendance has grown nightly with the blessings of God resting upon each service. Evangelist Colson delivers a very inspiring message adapted to the age in which we live. The services are nightly except Monday and Saturday nights and the pastor extends a cordial invitation to all to attend. The Assembly of God church is located at the corner of Maple and Second streets.

Social Security

Answers to Your Questions

QUESTION: I will graduate from high school this coming June, and I expect to go to work in my father's grocery store this summer. I have been told by one of my teachers that I will not need a social security card. Is she correct?

ANSWER: Your teacher is correct. If the store is owned by your father as an individual, the business not being a corporation or a partnership, and if you are under 21 years of age, your work for your father will come under the family employment exception and will not be covered by the Social Security Act. Your wages will not be taxable under that law and you will have no need for a social security card in such employment. For more information write the Social Security Administration, 104 Old Post Office Building, Portland 4, Oregon.

A Backer for Joe

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

For the first time, the Joe Pingles have a Backer. A Backer for Joe and all who live in ignorance, poverty, fear, worry, sickness or even such as do time behind bars. And who is this Backer? He is the Lord Jesus Christ, the Creator and Upbuilder of the universe. He stripped off His glory and came among us to even share our poverty.—The foxes have dens, the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has not where to lay His head — BIBLE, Luke 9:58.

New Life For Joe — Let Joe believe down in his heart that Christ died for his sins and God gives him eternal life. But even then, if Joe would have Christ's joy, peace, and cheer, he must disown every sinful way and look wholly to Christ to clean him up. Fred Nelson, Chengfu, China, writes of Chinese Christians lifted so high above old heathen ways, vices and habits that they are seen as Christ's new creation. It is Christ who now lives in them and out through them. And how about you?

This space paid for by a Portland business man.

Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dockwiler of St. Helens, Melvin McIntosh and Jack Quirck of Tacoma; on Thursday: Mrs. Robert McIntosh, son James and daughter Shirley of Scoggins valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooper brought Mrs. Glen Mitchell home Saturday after she had spent a couple of weeks visiting in Tacoma. Mrs. Cooper is Mrs. Mitchell's daughter. The Coopers spent the week end here.
