Mist P.T.A. to Begin Serving of Lunches

Mist P.T.A. met at the school the evening of December 14. President Norman Hansen reported that larger school traffic signs had been put up.

The P.T.A. will begin serving a hot dish at the school directly after the Christmas vacation.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Jack Crawford and Mrs. William Wilson.

The next meeting will be held on January 11.

Vernonia Wins From Hyster

In a slow, uninteresting match Friday night Vernonia out shot the Hyster rifle team by a score of 1389 to 1318. This was the first time these two teams had met and for a few minutes it looked like a good match. Then Vernonia's "Heavies" began to boom and it was soon over.

Milton Lamping was in rare form, shooting a 100 prone, 91 kneeling and 92 off hand for a total of 283, followed by Ralph Aldrich with 99 prone, 94 kneeling and 90 off hand, for a total of 283. Then came Harold Peterson with 100 prone, 92 kneeling, and 84 off hand. They were followed by Tod Bowerman with 275 and Ben George 272.

Vernonia
Milton Lamping	283
Ralph Aldrich	283
Harold Peterson	276
Tod Bowerman	275
Ben George	272
TOTAL	1389
Hyster
Davis	274
Allen	271
Zwold	261
Metzta	259
Howley	253
TOTAL	1318

The next match is with Clatskanie at Vernonia and should be a very interesting shoot, as Clatskanie has become a very high scoring team and would like very much to add Vernonia's scalp to their trophy list. Visitors are welcomed to these matches.

Injured Girl Enjoys Surprise Thursday

TREHARNE — A birthday surprise party was given in honor of Virginia Ann Eley last Thursday. As she was unable to partake too much in the festivities, due to her recent injury, her family and friends were doing their best to entertain her. Her father and two brothers, Rowland and Bob Eley, had just returned from the coast. For the evening's entertainment Virginia's younger brother, Rowland, and a friend Floyd Otis, recorded their voices on records. Lucky Eley a very entertaining hostess made the evening complete. A requested birthday song from the family was on the air about 11:30 p.m. Miss Jean Kirkbride, a close neighbor and schoolmate was also present.

Injuries Require Hospital Stay

ROCK CREEK — Lloyd Gillham, Jr., and his bride visited old neighbors over the week end. Those who didn't happen to see them wish them all the happiness possible.

Bob McDonald is out of the hospital, but his wife isn't able to come home as yet. Bob was hunting a small Christmas tree to make her stay there a little more enjoyable.

Janice, Kathleen, Linda, Lorna and Jimmy DeVaney took part in the Christmas program at the Evangelical U. B. church Sunday night. Mrs. Eola DeVaney as well as the parents of the children, except Janice's father who runs one of the O-A speeders, were there to watch the children and enjoy the fine program. Treats won't be given out until this coming Sunday morning so don't forget to be there then.

Washington Residents See Relatives Here

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wing of Portland spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Biggs. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fowler also enjoyed Sunday dinner at the John Biggs home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stark of Walkon, Washington visited at the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schallack.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Thomas and son of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. George Stover and granddaughter, Shirley Faulhaber of Vancouver, Washington were dinner guests at the J. A. Wirtz home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Edwards enjoyed Sunday dinner at the Louis Schroeder home.

Army "pup tents" date back to the civil war and were so named because they are in the shape of a dog house.

Keasey Unit Members Study Aid Methods

Keasey extension unit met on Wednesday, December 13 at the home of May Mellinger. After a short business session the project leaders, Jean DeVaney and Alice Buckley, gave the best methods in "Emergency Aids in the Home." Members of the group added their own tried and true remedies for different emergencies.

During the pot-luck lunch a box of assorted nuts was opened and a message read which Gladys Conklin had sent from California for the Christmas party. Those who exchanged gifts were Jean DeVaney, Alice Buckley, Hilda Keasey, Eda Parker, Nelia DeWitt, Marie Christensen, Edith McFarland, Vivian Counts, May Mellinger and Blanche DeWitt. Linda and Lorna DeVaney entertained by singing several Christmas songs.
