Clatskanie Bows To Club Shooters

In a regularly scheduled rifle match last Friday Vernonia proved too much for the up and coming Clatskanie shooters, score 1395 to 1357. This was a prone, kneeling, standing match, which both teams dislike very much.

Ralph Aldrich was top man on Vernonia's team with 100 prone, 91 kneeling and 91 standing for a total of 282. Then came Harold Peterson with 100 prone, 96 kneeling and 84 standing, total 280, closely followed by the Lamping brothers Milton with 90 prone, 90 kneeling and 90 standing, total 279, and Bernard with 100 prone, 92 kneeling and 87 standing total 279. Tod Bowerman was number five with 98 prone, 95 kneeling and 82 standing, total 275.

On the Clatskanie team, B. Horn was top man with 99 prone, 89 kneeling and 88 standing, total 274; Harold Davis second with 99 prone, 95 kneeling, 80 standing, total 274; J. Rand third with 98 prone, 92 kneeling, 82 standing, total 272; O. Mellinger fourth with 99 prone, 88 kneeling, 94 standing, total 271 and G. Poysky fifth, with 99 prone, 87 kneeling, 80 standing, total 266.

The next match will be at Vernonia Friday night against Troutdale.

Highway Travel Doubles Volume

Oregon highway travel last month more than doubled the volume recorded during the severe weather of January a year ago, according to traffic counts compiled by the state highway department.

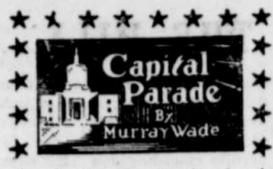

Taken from automatic recorders at six separate highway points, the count showed an average travel gain of 62.8 per cent as relatively mild weather last month kept more vehicles on the road.

Traffic fatalities also climbed, the secretary of state's traffic safety division reported, but the death increase failed to match the gain in travel. Preliminary figures list 26 persons killed last month as compared with 19 in January, 1950, a rise of approximately 37 per cent.

Heavier travel, the safety division pointed out, means a smaller margin for error on the part of individual drivers as Oregon's roadways carry more traffic than ever before. The division said highway collisions usually result from following too closely, passing without sufficient clearance, "weaving" on a multiplane arterials, and loss of control on curves.

LEGISLATURE GETS HOT

The Oregon Legislature started on its ninth week Monday morning with the heavy legislation facing it. New bills still are being introduced. A majority of the county salary boosting bills, statute corrections and other routine bills have been cleared up. The real slugging over the heavy measures started this week.

Last week was the most constructive of the session. The senate approval a proposal to allow state employees who fight in the Korean war to keep their retirement privileges; the house voted to retain provision giving the state a claim against estates of recipients of welfare assistance; the house passed and sent to the senate a bill permitting county clerks to distribute American flags to polling places when furnished by veteran's organizations; the senate voted 23 to 5 to let the highway commission issue $62,000,000 worth of bonds in the next five years. Senator Elmo Smith, chairman of the senate highway commission said bond roads are costing the state $100,000,000 a year. Senator Manley Wilson has introduced a bill to class all logging trucks as common carriers and permit the utilities commissioner to fix minimum rates for log hauling.

EMERGENCY BOARD ILLEGAL

The state of Oregon would like to dispose of a 1913 model emergency board. Unless the supreme court should differ with the opinion of State Attorney General George Neuner, that the 38-year-old emergency board is unconstitutional, the state is snafu as to emergency matters until the constitution is amended at the next election or the legislature creates an emergency board that does not include any of its members. The legislature cannot confer executive powers on its members. The board as it has operated consisted of seven members of the legislature.

FEWER HOLIDAYS

State, county, city and judicial employees in Oregon will lose three holidays a year if the vote of the senate follows action taken by the house this week on a bill to eliminate Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays and election days from the list of legal holidays.

Proponents of the bill say it will save the state $100,000 a year. The bill as passed by the house would keep Columbus day off the holiday list.

Rep. Rudie Wilhelm, Portland, complimented state employees for not bringing pressure against the measure.

RECKONING DUE

"No one man or group of men can keep the entire world in turmoil forever," Erle Cocke, Jr., National Commander of the American Legion, told a special joint session of the Oregon Legislature Saturday.

"Eventually even the most peaceful minded person gets tired of being constantly bullied and, in righteous wrath, girds his lions, flexes his muscles and says in effect; 'okey, pal, you asked for it.'"

"That," the youthful fighting Commander said, "is what is happening in the world today. Russia has acted the part of the bully and gotten away with a bluff because the rest of the world has been war-weary and content to let the bully exercise his lungs. But between war-weariness and the weariness engendered by listening to blatant outbursts of politburo politrons, the world is finding the latter the more bore-some."

"We already are eight months into the third world war. The situation is as ticklish as in 1941 when selective service was passed by only one vote," he claimed.

Thursday Eve. Affair Attended

NATAL — Mrs. Sam Devine attended the party given by Mrs. John Devine in Clatskanie Thursday evening. She accompanied Mrs. Grover Devine of Gaston and Mrs. Pauline Jackson of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dass are happy to announce the arrival of a granddaughter to Mr. and Mrs. Don Armstrong of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Devine and Cheryl spent the week end at the John Gordon home in Delena while Mr. and Mrs. Gordon were gone on a trip to Raymond, Washington.

Commander Cocke is beginning a world tour to study defense problems and inspect armed service training installations for a report to Defense Secretary George Marshall on their adequacy. After giving his Salem address at 10 a.m. Saturday he and his retinue explained for Hawaii where he was scheduled for an address at Honolulu Sunday morning.

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

Governor Douglas McKay this week made the following appointments U. S. Alderman, Dayton, to represent market gardening on the state board of agriculture; Dr. Charles E. Palmer, Ontario, (re-appointed) as a member of the state board of medical examiners; Mrs. William Chandlee, Hillsboro, chairman of the Oregon Mothers committee for 1951 and Clyde Haase, Portland, to the state board of barber examiners.

GENERAL RILEA HONORED

Announcement was made Saturday by Governor Douglas McKay that he had been advised of the election to the executive council of the Adjutant General's association at its meeting in Washington, D. C., of Oregon's adjutant general, Maj. Gen. Thomas E. Rilea. He is the first Oregon man to ever be named to the council.
