

Fire Completely Destroys Home at Natal Early in Morning Wednesday

NATAL — The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hulstead was completely destroyed by fire last Wednesday morning. This was the former John Titus place. It is understood all their belongings burned, including the house, garage and barn which held 30 tons of hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Karr of Cherry Grove were week end visitors of the Ernest Kysers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Choate made a business trip to California over the week end. Mrs. Ernest Kyser kept their boys while they were on their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hirtzel and children of Beaverton called on the Devine family Sunday evening.

Dee Vere Hershey and Wayne Wilkins were Friday evening callers at the Harvey Riddings.

John Thornton and William Devine were Sunday evening callers at the Clair Devines. William Devine just recently returned from the East where he has been stationed, but is back at Fort Lewis, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Holding called on the Jim Morans Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lynch and daughter, Velma, of Scappoose were Sunday visitors at the Robert Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson were Portland visitors Friday.

Sunday evening guests at the Oblack home were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pesio of Clatskanie.

Dee Vere Hershey was a Sunday visitor of the Henry Ander-egg family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Holce of Vernonia were Saturday evening callers at the Robert Mathews.

Health of Elderly Couple Better Now

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Steele of Sweet Home visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hawkins Saturday. They reported that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Steele, are both much improved in health. Mrs. Steele is in Portland and Mr. Steele at St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. Reagan Crowell of McMinnville visited at the Frank Serafin home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Krinick visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Graham on Sauvies Island Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins and great granddaughter of Sedro Wooley, Washington and Bert Hawkins of Vernonia enjoyed dinner at the Glen Hawkins home Tuesday. John Hawkins is a brother of Bert Hawkins.

Jack Olin drove out from Portland Saturday, spending the week end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Olin. His wife and baby, who had spent the week here, returned home with him Sunday evening.

Saturday callers at the T. F. Hillyer home were Mrs. Colen Crouse and son, Mrs. Welch and Mrs. Perley Crouse of St. Helens.

The Buddhist temple at Horyuji, Japan, parts of which have stood since the year 739 A.D., is believed to be the oldest wooden building in the world.

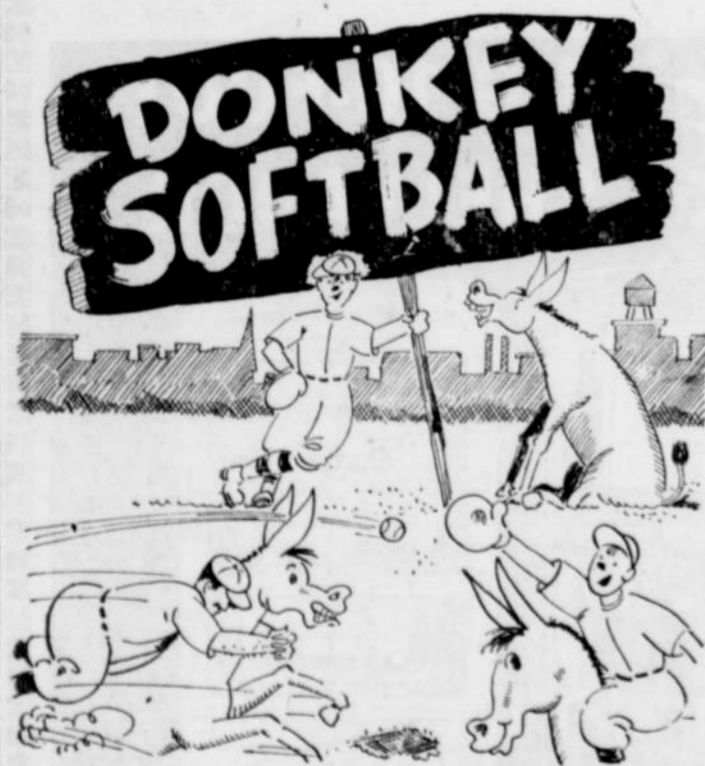

For Your Family's Diet

SERVE MORE
MEAT

Meat is a body builder, a nutrition "MUST." Serve it at least once a day to make sure you and your family are getting needed proteins and minerals! For the choicest cuts do your buying here — Fine meats priced to fit your budget!

MILL MARKET AND LOCKERS

Remember—
DELIVERIES TWICE
DAILY: 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.
PHONE 1391

THURSDAY, JUNE 28

Tonight — 8 P. M.

City Park Field

ADMISSION: Adults 65c, Children 30c

Sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars. Proceeds will be utilized to pay for roofing new hall

THIS PHOTO was submitted by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lindsay and is identified as showing the third grade in 1922, '23 or '24. When this group graduated from the grades, it was the next to the last class to leave the old grade school building that was used before the Washington school was opened for classes in 1930. Identification of the pupils could not be made for every face, but the listing obtained was: front row, left to right, Harvard Malmsten, LeRoy Christensen, (not known), (not known), Vel-

da Mellinger, Clarence Lindsay, Harvey Eden, (not known), Ivan Reed and Ben Spencer; middle row, l to r, (not known), Johnny Counts, Kenneth Parker, Russell Whitsell, Glen Urie, (not known), Clyde Sessman, Edna Owen.

May Hall, and Cleo Hall; back row, l to r, LeRoy Cook, Throop, MayDeEtt Throop, Kathryn Malmsten, (not known), (not known), Gladys Dallman and Audrey Johnson. Vita Emmons, teacher, stands above at the back.

New Residents Occupy Property

TREHARNE — Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. DuRette and three children moved Saturday into the S. D. Stearns property. Mr. and Mrs. White and daughter have moved their trailer there also. Both families formerly lived at the Capitol Hill Hatchery. Both families are welcomed to the Treharne community.

Byron Kirkbride and his father, G. C. Kirkbride, of Vernonia motored Saturday to Hillsboro on business and to Mountindale to bring Mrs. Byron Kirkbride and children home from picking berries.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Kirkbride and Wayne Wallace, grandson of Mrs. Ray Clarie and Mrs. G. C. Kirkbride, of Vernonia motored to Mountindale Monday to pick berries to can. Mr. Kirkbride fell a tree for Mr. Peters while there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wienecke and family of Springfield spent the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wienecke.

Mrs. Dottie McDaniel and her sister of Portland were overnight guests at the H. A. Wilson home.

Treharne Resident Is Honored by Party Group

TREHARNE — Mrs. Mae Tallman and Mrs. Donna Tallman were hostesses at a belated birthday party honoring Mrs. Carl Wienecke. A very delightful dinner was served at noon. The day was spent in visiting and music. Those present were Mrs. Wilbur Thacker; Mrs. Royce Newton and Darlene; Mrs. Lester Galloway and Tamara; Mrs. Geo. Smith, Terry and Freddie; Mrs. Chester Wienecke, Laura Lee, Hazel and Darrell; Mrs. Carl Wienecke and the hostesses, Mrs. B. E. Tallman; Mrs. Monte Tallman and Lorraine of Timber.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wienecke and family, and Mrs. Carl Wienecke were Wednesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Herinckx of Wilkesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Falconer and Mary were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

BEN'S BARBER SHOP

Expert Tonsorial Work

Vernonia, Oregon

How Many Can You Remember?

WMS Entertained at Mills Home Wednesday

MIST — Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sundland and Sharon came from McMinnville and spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sundland.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Enneberg were in Portland Saturday. Mrs. Richard Banzer has been visiting with her grandmother at Pendleton the past week or so. The W.M.S. met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs.

Arby Mills. There was quite a good attendance and an interesting study of the Bible in Romans. A delicious luncheon was served after the meeting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ray Bennett the second Wednesday in July.

LOGS
WANTED

at

KINGSLEY LUMBER CO.

Linnton, Oregon

TRUCK SCALE

WEEKLY SETTLEMENT

We will finance timber purchases, second or old growth for qualified loggers