

The First Lie

Adam And Eve Warned: — "On the day you eat of the fruit of the tree you will surely die." So God warned Adam and Eve. But Satan tempted Eve to eat saying — "You shall not surely die." This was the first lie — Gen. 3rd. By it Satan became the Father of liars — John 8:44. Later Adam also ate and fell. Then God sent death — the sign that all are born with Adam's fallen nature. The sign that in Adam all fall. The grave swallows all.

Christ Enters — Christ sinned not. At the end, He took our sins, died for us and then by glorious resurrection, He came from death and the grave. And so He is to raise up His redeemed. They shall not see the Judgement of the lost. Believe on Him as dying for your sins and He makes you one of God's people. — John 12th.

Help Needed to Meet Big Budget

Seven million dollars looks like a lot of money even when the government mentions it, but when the little man in the street starts digging down into his pocket to help raise that amount, it becomes astronomical.

Members of the Vernonia Seventh-day Adventist church will be doing their share of the "digging" this Saturday, August 23, along with fellow church members round the world, in order to enable the denomination's grade-A medical college in Loma Linda, California to meet its annual operating budget.

Dr. D. H. C. Menkel, medical secretary of the Oregon conference, will present at the 11 a.m. service the great need for Christian physicians today and the part the college of medical evangelists is playing in meeting that need. The medical school's $5,865,000 expansion program will be discussed along with its present capacity for service. More than 50 doctors were graduated this year. Since the institution was founded in 1906 it has graduated more than 4,500 physicians, nurses, dietitians, and medical technicians.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

MANNERS

Self-denial is practical, and is not only polite to all but is pleasant to those who practice it. — Mary Baker Eddy

For manners are not idle, but the fruit of loyal nature and of noble mind. — Alfred Lord Tennyson

Manners breed morals. Without sincerity, manners are mere apish bowing and scraping. — Kang-Hsi

Men are polished, through act and speech, each by each, as pebbles are smoothed on the rolling beach. — J. T. Trowbridge

Manner, not gold, is woman's best adornment. — Menander

Camp Attendants to Have Charge of Service

The young people who went to Christian Service camps will have charge of the evening service at the First Christian church on Sunday, August 24. They will report on what they did at camp and sing songs they learned there. Everyone is invited to attend.

TREHARNE — Mr. and Mrs. Rome Whitmore left Friday morning by bus for Oklahoma and points east on a six-week vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lin Reynolds and Mike motored to Portland Tuesday on business and stopped by the Byron Kirkbride's and Joe Millers on the way home to visit in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Long and sons visited his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Purcell, on Capitol Hill Tuesday evening. They spent the evening sanding floors for the Purcells.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Markley and children of Deer Island visited their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Long and family Sunday.

Date of Picnic for Sunday School Changed

The annual picnic of the EUB Sunday school will be held at Rogers Park this afternoon and evening instead of tomorrow as first announced.

A bus will leave the church at 4 p.m. to take all who have no other means of transportation. Members and friends of the Sunday school are invited to enjoy this picnic at which there will be games, a picnic dinner, and a treat by the Sunday school.

Boxes Prepared for Shipment to Korea

At the regular missionary meeting held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Anna Partridge, with 11 members attending, six large boxes were prepared with clothing and miscellaneous items for Korea.

OUT OF THE WOODS . . .

More Work for Schools . . .
A chameleon changes its colors no often than a government statistician changes the figures of his guesses when the subject is human beings and their wonderful and amazing doings.

The Census Bureau statisticians had predicted a baby crop of 2,450,000 for 1951, and now they confess with joy and pride, that 3,900,000 new cherubs and imps of humankind came out of the everywhere into the here last year, about 13 per cent above expectations.

The population came up to a round 155,000,000 in the year, a 15 per cent gain in ten years, for all the traffic and the wars. Again the Census sharks of the statistical seas were pleased to up their old estimate of 170,000,000 New Yorkers, Dogcatchers and other Americans in 1960 to (maybe) 180,000,000.

As a cynic might put it, folks are marrying like fools let loose, and there's nothing in sight to stop them.

The Small School of Wood . . .
If we had peace and normal production for peacetime needs through 1952 and on to 1960, say the authorities, the country would build at least 6,000,000 new homes and spend 10 to 12 billion dollars a year on all home construction including remodeling and repairs. Now it appears that as much as 40 per cent of the home building that had been in prospect for 1952 will not get off the contractor's blueprints.

Urgent school construction needs may be supplied by allocation of scarce materials, so I read in the writings of the experts, but as defense production rises with the growing cloud of the Communist menace on all horizons the precious metals of war are most certainly going to go where they are needed most urgently.

One thing we must do is to catch up with the architects who have learned that the type of school designed and built to last as long and as unchanged as the Washington Monument is the poorest kind of business. Three-fourths of the nation's school districts are struck with one or more schools with ancient walls that only dynamite can destroy but which inside are utterly

Picnic Planned by Tabernacle Sunday

The all church picnic of the Calvary Tabernacle will be held at Roger's park immediately after the morning worship service August 24. Coffee and lunch will be furnished. There will be special musical numbers and the public is cordially invited to attend. Evening worship service will be held at the park at 6:00 p.m.

Back in 1949, before the present trouble, the Architectural Forum said:

"The small elementary school, of light construction intended for 25 or 30 years of use, would meet the changing pattern of community need much better than the heavy buildings whose physical life span of 50 years will probably far outlast their useful life. This is not only because school need is likely to recede, it is also because today's rapid developments in design and technology mean a more rapid rate of building obsolescence—a matter which has not yet been given adequate consideration by all types of building investors."

And it was pointed out that when school needs recede the small school building can continue in service as a community center.

Turn to the Trees . . .
The one-story, campus-type of school building was an idea that Portland school architects put to work as early as 1923. Three were built, they endure, they are modern today. California school authorities carried the principle on in earthquake-resistant construction. The Long Beach quake of 1933 was a terrific demonstration of the danger to life in the old-time monumental type of school and the safety to life in the one-story school on a campus plan.

Whatever the materials used, the latter type is not only the safest under powerful shocks and blows but in fire. Children can go out almost instantly from many exits without risk of panic or suffocating smoke.

The oldest existing homes, schools and churches in the Pacific Northwest today are of wood construction all the way through.

Kansas People Guests at Home

BIRKENFELD — Mrs. Guy Bellingham called on Anna Hanberg Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. I. A. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Elliott and twin daughters, Sharon and Shirley, from Bogue, Kansas are spending a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Mills of North Plains spent Wednesday at the M. P. Mills home.

Guy and Claire Bellingham were in Portland Saturday. While there they called on Martin Van who is in the vets hospital. They found Martin some improved, but still very ill.

Harley Redmond was in Birkenfeld visiting friends Thursday. He makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Gene Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Larson and children returned from a business trip to California last Sunday.
