Dedication of Table Made Sun.

Cleve Moore, an elder of the First Christian church of Portland, brought greetings from his church and a history of the communion table which was dedicated at a simple, but impressive service in the First Christian church here last Sunday morning. Mrs. Moore came to Vernonia with him.

The table was given the Vernonia church by the First church in Portland and beautifully refinished by the Vernonia church. A small brass plate, suitably inscribed has been placed on the table which was dedicated to the memory of "Aunt Yate" McDonald who was a charter member of the local church. Mrs. Bessie Bell of Klamath Falls, a daughter of Mrs. McDonald, sent a letter of greeting and appreciation, which was read during the service. Other relatives of Mrs. McDonald were honored guests at the service.

The elders and deasons of the church entertained Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Moore and Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Swander at dinner in the church dining room after the morning service.

Cripple Leaped

Had Never Walked: — Jerusalem and soon after Christ's ascension up into glory. A man of 40 years of age who had never walked was carried daily to sit by the way and beg a coin from the many who passed into the temple to worship. Came one of Christ's men and he gave the beggar more than the expected coin. It was — "In the name of Jesus of Nazareth, rise and walk." Instantly the beggar's feet and ankle bones received strength and he sprang up and went into the temple walking and leaping and praising God.

Christ Acted: — Christ's man had used Christ's name and Christ, from His throne on high honored the use of His name. From out the glory, God gave His man the right to command the beggar to rise and walk. Christ's man used the faith and Christ acted. So the beggar was healed. Acts 3rd. And when your day is dark and the going rough, cry to Him who died for your sins. "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee," says He. Hebrews 13:5. This space sponsored by a family of the county who would see you made rich in Christ.
