Mist Club Prepares Meal at Meeting

The Busy Bee 4-H Cooking Club of Mist met at the home of Bonnie Kyser. The breakfast club fixed link sausages; the luncheon club made pineapple cottage cheese salad and the dinner club cooked sweet potatoes and apples and also made lemon sponge pudding.

At the meeting the club planned to have a Christmas party. Members drew names for exchanging gifts and the party will be December 19 at Mrs. Ashley's.

After the dishes were done, Mrs. Ashley showed the girls how to make a candle holder using a gum drop, life saver and birthday candle. Mrs. Ashley also showed the girls how to make a wreath and a door swag using evergreens.

Yule Theme for Unit Expressed

The Mist-Nehalem extension unit had its Christmas party at the home of Ellen Wanstrom December 5. She was assisted by Katherine Jepson. The business meeting was very short and the afternoon was enjoyed by singing Christmas carols, by a gift exchange and a discussion of last minute gifts.

Many ideas were presented for gifts, some being to have gifts in mind throughout the year, by taking advantage of bargains, making aprons, hankies, and many other things. The new tube paints were shown as a good idea for last minute ideas.

The children and Mrs. Knowles, club sitter, were all invited to this meeting. Ten children attended.

The next meeting will be at C. L. Waddell's home on January 9, 1953.

Extension Group to Meet at Pittsburg

The Vernonia extension club will meet Thursday, December 11, at the home of Mrs. James Smith at Pittsburg. A pot-luck dinner will be served at noon and a Christmas gift exchange will take place among the members and guests.
