

Bibles Placed In Windows

Merchants cooperating very graciously with the local Ministerial association in placing Bibles in their windows in observance of Universal Bible Sunday, which is December 14. On display at Miller's store is a Swedish Bible. Posters were also given out by the Ministerial group depicting the "Word of Life" for universal Bible reading for the period of Thanksgiving through Christmas. Some material was furnished by the American Bible Society from San Francisco. The stands for the Bible were supplied by the Ministerial association.

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By BILL AND REATHA HORN

QUESTION: I've noticed that quite often when a large plate glass store window is broken it is several days before either the owner or his insurance Company can get new glass installed and it is necessary to board up the window temporarily. If the owner has Plate Glass insurance does the Company pay for the boarding up?

ANSWER: Yes, when the owner of Plate Glass insurance suffers a loss under the policy and the Company is unable to make immediate replacement the temporary protection is paid for by the Company.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

CHARM
To me more dear, congenial to my heart,
One native charm, than all the gloss of art.
—Goldsmith
When men give up saying what is charming, they give up thinking what is charming.
—Oscar Wilde
Age, like distance, lends a double charm.
—Oliver Wendell Holmes
The charm of a deed is its doing; the charm of a life is its living; the soul of the thing is the thought.
—Eugene Fitch Ware
The embellishments of the person are poor substitutes for the charms of being, shining resplendent and eternal over age and decay.
—Mary Baker Eddy
All the charm of all the Muses often flowering in a lonely word.
—Alfred Lord Tennyson

Observance of Day Scheduled

The Mission Study groups of the Christian Women's Fellowship will have charge of the morning service next Sunday, December 14, at the First Christian church. This is in celebration of Woman's Day, an annual event of the first or second Sunday in December in which the mission program of the church is emphasized.

Dr. C. F. Swander is some improved in health after spending a poor week. He was able to sit up Saturday and by last Sunday his eyes had improved so that he was able to read his Bible. If his health continues to improve he plans to preach here on Sunday, December 21.

Tabernacle to Hear Ambassador Quartet

The Ambassador Quartet of the Multnomah School of the Bible will be at the Calvary Tabernacle Sunday Evening, December 14, at 7:30. The program will consist of singing testimonies and preaching. The public is invited to attend.

More coffee is consumed in New York and New Orleans than anywhere in the U.S.

Speaker to End Meeting Series

Evangelist Ronald Prinzing will close his special meetings at the Assembly of God church Sunday night. His messages have been timely and inspiring. Folks have appreciated the ministry of this young man. Services will be Thursday and Friday nights at 7:30 and on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. with the Evangelist speaking at both services.

Monday, Rev. Prinzing will leave for California where he is engaged for meetings in the southern part of the state. Young people will receive a special welcome to any of the meetings for the remainder of this week.

Feed, Carolling Plan for 21st

The youth groups of the First Christian church will hold their annual chili feed and carolling party after the Christmas program the evening of December 21. Anyone knowing the name of a shut-in or other person who would like to hear the carolling on that evening, is asked to give the name and address to Pat Wells or Mrs. H. O. Smith.

Anyone who wants to help with the chili feed is invited to the party afterwards. The Senior Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church is practicing the play, "No Room in the Hotel," to be given as their part of the Christmas program at the church the evening of December 21.

Young Folks Act

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

As their car sped through Chicago Sunday afternoons, the college young folks used to bow their heads in prayer. It was to ask God to honor their work in the big mission Sunday school, there on the South Side. The Apostle Paul laid down the line they were to follow. Said he — "I determined not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ and Him crucified." 1st Cor. 2:2. Let them present Christ and Him crucified and God will honor his word. So he has for 20 centuries and millions have turned to be set right with God, having their sins blotted out and eternal life written in. No man goes to glory with even one sin against his name. So which for you? Christ and glory or self goodness and hell? Which for you? This space sponsored by a family of the county.

Special Service for Mist Church Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacCready of Timber will be at the Mist Bible church next Sunday evening for the 6:30 Bible club and the 8:00 p.m. evening service.

Mr. MacCready will bring a special feature for the evening service and will speak and do a special lighted chalk drawing at 8 o'clock.

Everyone is cordially invited.
