Weekly Visit 7th Barber Shop

Scenes of the '90s will come to life next week in Forest Grove when non-professional male quartets compete for the $300 first prize in the 7th annual Original All-Northwest Barber Shop contest and Gay Nineties festival slated for February 27 and 28.

In addition to the $300 first prize, to be awarded in silver coins to the top quartet from Washington, Oregon, or Idaho, will be $700 in cash prizes and numerous individual trophies for unique window displays, costumes and parade entries.

The Forest Grove Gleemen, sponsors of the affair, promise a full bill of activity to begin on Thursday evening with the Gay Nineties ball to take place in the Legion Hall. Quartet competition will start Friday evening with the eliminations contest beginning at 7:00.

Forest Grove high school auditorium will become the San Francisco Barbary coast Saturday night, setting the scene for quartet finals and the Gay Nineties Review.

Mail order tickets for the Friday night all-quartet program and the two Saturday night stage shows are now available. Tickets may be obtained by writing to Ticket Chairman, P.O. Box 13, Forest Grove. Include a self-addressed stamped envelope and a check or money order.

Prices will be $1.80 for Friday night's program and $2.40 for each of the Saturday night shows.
