Cooking Club Girls Bake Bread April 30

The dinner club division of the Busy Bee 4-H cooking club of Mist met at the home of Bonnie Kyser April 30 to make bread. A variety of rolls were baked as well as one loaf of bread and a Swedish tea ring.

While the bread was rising the girls enjoyed playing games.

After the meeting was adjourned, the club went to Birkenfeld to see the flower show.

Unit to Help at Community Day

The last meeting of the Mist-Nehalem home extension unit was held Friday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Arby Mills on Fishhawk road. Twenty-two answered the roll call, with nine children present.

The 4-H chairman gave a report on the paper drive. They had gathered ten tons of paper. She also asked if this unit would furnish salad for Community Day which is May 16 at Vernonia. Minnie Wilson will take the salads; they should be at her home by 9 a.m.

Azalea House was discussed again and it was decided to contribute toward the fund again this year.

The lesson of the day was oven meals given by Mae Mills and Mrs. Ellen Lonquist. They prepared a complete oven meal and the results were sampled by the club. They prepared meat loaf, oven rice, green beans Spanish style and prune cake. After the demonstration, the club members planned an oven meal to suit their own family taste.

Homemakers festival was discussed again and those planning to attend were to have purchased their luncheon tickets. The club adjourned until September.

Response to Paper Drive Pleases Club

The Little Bakers 4-H girls are very happy about all the paper people gave to them. The 4-H day will be held May 16 at the Legion hall. The girls made cookies to be judged at their last meeting, everybody bringing five. The girls sampled about every kind.

Ramblers Start Series of Dances

The new series of dances inaugurated last Saturday at the county fairgrounds, will be staged by the Powder River Ramblers with the cooperation of the Columbia county fair association.

Considerable remodeling has been done at the fair ground dance hall to ready it for the series of dances. A western atmosphere is the theme of the decorations and improvements have been made in acoustics. Lunch room facilities and a check room and ticket booth have been added.
