Adventists Set Day for Visits

Members of the Vernonia Seventh-day Adventist church will devote Saturday afternoon to a visitation program designed to better acquaint their friends and neighbors with Adventists and their work, Pastor Preston Smith announced this week.

As part of the program the congregation plans to distribute copies of an article on Seventh-day Adventists which appeared recently in Look magazine, Pastor Smith said. The article was one of a popular series Look is running on religions of America.

Pastor Smith said more than six million reprints of the article have been ordered by the denomination for distribution Saturday throughout the United States and Canada.

Clam Tides Lure People to Beach

BIRKENFELD — Clam tides were good over the week end. Several from here were lured to the beaches including Al and Victor Berg, Clair Guy and George Bellingham, Dick Lousignont, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bellingham and boys and Mrs. Elsa Richardson.

The shower for Georgianna Mills held Friday night was well attended. Nearly 40 people were there. A few games were played, the many gifts opened and admired, then refreshments were served by the two hostesses, Mrs. Guy Bellingham and Mrs. Cecil Elliott.

The small son of Mrs. Ione Downee of Portland is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wanstrom.

VBS Students to Help at Service

Pupils of the Vacation Bible school will give the scripture reading and provide the special music during the morning worship hour Sunday at the Evangelical U.B. church.

The school began with an enrollment of 31 Monday. This jumped to 45 on Tuesday and gave promise of being doubled before the school ending date of June 5. Enrollment this year was confined to the ages 5 through 12.

Rotten Inside?

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

Does the Bible really say that God gave his own God-nature to the smooth, slick, self-righteous sinners as well as to the down and outers? True it does, if any such receive Christ as God's Son who died for their sins. The eternal God came here in the person of His Son and he gives his God-nature to all who believe in Christ as God the Lord who died for them. Says God — Set your heart on Christ as dying for your sins and I will indwell you with eternal life. — Not that we loved God but that he loved us and gave Christ, His Son, to die for us. See 1st John 4:10. After His death for your sins, He came from the grave to give peace, hope, cheer and God-life to all who receive Him as Lord and Saviour. Turn and believe. Then new days, ways and eternal life are yours. This message sponsored by a Seattle family.

Families Gather for Memorial Day Picnic

ROCK CREEK — Kathleen, Linda and Lorna DeVany are staying with their aunt, Vivian Counts, to make it easier for their mother to hunt a new abode. Eola DeVany and her children with their families enjoyed a picnic on the creek at her home Memorial day. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boscok of Portland and their daughter, Ruth, and her family of Hillsboro added their contribution to the festivities. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. DeWitt and grandson, Roger Brown, spent the week end with their daughter in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Don A. DeWitt came over from Moses Lake to make quite a family gathering. Roger stayed there to have a vacation after the arduous year of school.
