Candidate Given Degree July 24

Mt. Heart Rebekah Lodge met in regular session July 24 with Jane Pace, N.G., presiding. The initiatory degree was conferred on one candidate.

Plans were made to visit the I.O.O.F. home in Portland Thursday evening, August 13, and at the same time hold the regular meeting there. Grace Cantwell, who is chairman of the transportation committee, advises all who plan the trip to Portland to be at the Vernonia I.O.O.F. hall at 5:45 p.m. An interesting program and meeting is being arranged.

Three applications for benefit membership were read. Voted into membership were: Robert Eugene McNair and Cleo Maye McNair and Miss Laura Steer. These three new neighbors and five others who previously were voted into the Circle, will be initiated Thursday, August 30.

On that date the district Circle officers and team will visit this Circle and put on the work in honor of these new Neighbors of Woodcraft.

Fortunate indeed, are these new Neighbors who will be instructed in the Mysteries of the Wood by the well versed officers of the district Circle and the famous district Circle team, Captained by Kris Norgaard, renowned drill captain.

Plans were completed for entertaining the visitors and new members. Meeting adjourned to refreshments served by Catherine Lantz and Virginia Hogberg.
