

Surprise Shower Held At Frazee Home Wed.

A surprise wedding shower was held in honor of Mrs. Gene Foster, (Ora May Smith) at the home of Mrs. Marie Frazee Wednesday, the 5th at 8 p.m.

Upon entering the house she was presented with a corsage of sweetpeas by the hostesses. The table was beautifully decorated with a bride and groom as the centerpiece with tiny miniature flowers placed around them.

Refreshments of punch, cake, and jello were served to the 20 guests attending.

Rite Performed For Home Agent

Miss Frances L. Gallatin, daughter of L. H. Gallatin and former Columbia county home agent, became the bride of Lawrence F. Joris of Scottsbluff, Nebraska Sunday, August 9. The wedding took place at Gering, Nebraska in the Methodist church.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Charles Scott as matron of honor and Mr. Scott as best man, both of Gering.

The bride wore a biege jacket dress trimmed with black velvet, a black velvet hat and a corsage of gold rose buds.

The groom wore a single breasted powder blue suit with white carnation boutonniere.

The couple is honeymooning for three weeks in the Colorado mountains. They will make their home in Scottsbluff, Nebraska where Mr. Joris is employed by the U.S. soil conservation service. Mrs. Joris will attend the fall quarter at Colorado A&M college where she will receive her Masters degree in extension education in December.
