

Camp Held Both

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

Of the hundreds of grade and high-schoolers at the Bible camp this summer, some were truly saved and others only had the feeling. All were personally dealt with and all had salvation passages such as John 3:36, which declares that all who believe in Jesus Christ have eternal life. They were also taught to stand on the Bible promises through bright days and dark. It was taught them that God never forgets his promises; nor does he change. Let them believe and be saved.

Parents drive out each closing Sunday and a special service is put on. Even though Christ died for their every last sin, yet parents also stand lost until they receive Christ into their hearts as their own Lord and Saviour. Parents surely sell their souls down the river if they put off and put off—"Now is the day of salvation," 2nd Cor. 6:2. This space sponsored by a Seattle family.

Joseph Hofmann, the musician, is also an inventor.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

CLEANLINESS
Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Psalms 51:10
Cleanliness is, indeed, next to Godliness. —John Wesley
We need a clean body and a clean mind. —a body rendered pure by Mind as well as washed by water. —Mary Baker Eddy
Unless the vessel is clean, what ever you pour into it turns sour. —Horace
Purity is to have righteous thoughts. —Unknown author
Let the mind's sweetness have its operation upon thy body, thy clothes, and thy habitation. —Herbert

Farewell Honors Minister, Wife

Rev. and Mrs. Paul D. Sisler were the guests of honor Tuesday evening at a farewell party which took place at the Evangelical U.B. church social hall. The Sislers are leaving this week for Seattle where he will serve as minister for the Seattle Shoreline church, a new mission venture in a large residential development of North Seattle.
Rev. F. M. Knoll, new minister assigned to the Vernonia church will be in the pulpit for the coming Sunday's service.

Bazaar, Clothing Collection Due

At their regular business meeting last week, the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian church voted to hold a bazaar and cooked food sale on December 5.

They will also continue to collect and ship used clothing for needy Koreans and the Yakima Indian Mission at White Swan, Washington.

The Oregon Council of Churches has issued a special call for used clothing for Korea during August and September. The C.W.F. will clean used clothing and will pack and ship it through American Relief to Korea (ARK), a brand of Church World Service. Used clothing may be left at the First Christian church on Wednesday, August 26, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., or at any other time when the church doors are open during any regular service during the months of August and September.

Other service projects decided at the meeting included the collecting of a layette for the mission field and the remodeling of the local church kitchen.

School Classes Camp, Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Russell took the girls from her intermediate class of the Nazarene Sunday school to Twin Rocks for an overnight camping trip Friday night, August 7. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lais, Sunday school superintendent, took their car making it possible for all to go.

Those who made the trip were: Nancy and Roberta Lloyd, Carol and Connie McKenney, Carol Cox, Janet Ridling, Ruby Daniels, Donna Savage, Marilyn Woodbeck and Betty Archer. Three were not able to attend.

Mr. Russell and Mr. Lais took the girls down the beach on a four mile hike. Upon their return Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Lais served a picnic supper on the beach.

The young people of Mr. Russell's class attended a picnic supper at Rogers Park last Friday night.

Astoria Ferry Traffic Extremely Heavy Sunday

MIST — Bernard Dowling and his mother spent Sunday on a pleasure trip to Astoria and across to Washington on the ferry. They visited Ilwaco going to the lighthouse, and finished by going to Pitcock Spit, the graveyard of many ships. Many cars waited to cross on the ferry from Megler to Astoria.

Mrs. W. Monroe and Mrs. Walter Mathews were Portland business visitors Monday.

Leonard Harris' brother is visiting here from California.

The Leonard Ek family were in the valley again Sunday from Vancouver.

Mist Home Scene of Gathering for Shower

MIST — A pink and blue shower was given at the home of Mrs. Chas. Sundland last week, honoring Mrs. Dudley Spofford. Mrs. Spofford is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clossner.

Mrs. Austin Dowling and son, Bernard, were in Longview, a week ago.

Mrs. Roy Hughes had her sister from Merrill visiting recently. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taylor and girls and Rena Johnson of Clatskanie, Jenny Zillman and Timmy Coryell all spend a week ago Sunday at Sosside.

Jackie Burnham is working for Shalmon Libel.
