

11 Names Added To Woodcraft

Nehalem Circle No. 881, Neighbors of Woodcraft, met Thursday, August 20, in the I.O.O.F. hall in special session for the purpose of initiating a class of new members. The district circle officers and team motored here from Portland to put on the work of initiation.

After a short welcoming address, Guardian Neighbor Catherine Lentz turned the gavel over to District Guardian Neighbor Ruth Cordova, who conducted the meeting.

Distinguished guests receiving the honors of their respective rank were: Grand Banker Eudelle Norgaard, Grand Representatives Nellie German, Mary Kreiger, and Dolly Stratton. Also honored were Field Director Jerry Saylor and Field Manager Roy Peters.

Grand Captain of Guards Kris Norgaard and his famous team also were honored as were the officers of district 11 of whom Pearl Erickson is a member.

After an impressive flag ceremony was exemplified, roll of district 11 officers was called, followed by roll call of local officers.

The beautiful lessons were impressively unfolded by the well-versed officers. Instructed into the Mysteries of the Wood were: Ruth L. Steers, Marion B. Steers, Miss Laura Steers, Robert McNair, Cleo Maye McNair, Lee Jesse, Mildred Jesse, Nels H. Hogberg, Lenore Cox, Rockwell A. Horn, and Vivian M. Counts.

After these 11 new Neighbors had been initiated the district Circle team put on some precision drills.

Grand Banker Eudelle Norgaard then addressed the meeting, stressing the thought that friendly cooperation and harmony makes an active and growing Circle. She also brought the regrets of Grand Guardian Minerva Coddling who is confined to her home after surgery.

Refreshments of ice cream, cakes and coffee ended the evening. The next meeting will be September 3 at the Legion hall.

Birthday Party Surprise Honors Mrs. McBride

Members of the Assembly of God church and friends gathered at the church parsonage Friday night, August 14, after the Young People's service to surprise Mrs. W. A. McBride, who had purposely been detained in the church sanctuary until the guests could assemble.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in visiting and also several musical numbers were rendered. Mrs. McBride received many lovely gifts. Delightful refreshments of cake, ice cream and coffee were served by the ladies of the church.

Meeting Marks Anniversary Date

The Friendship Circle met at Ella Wood's home August 20. Joint hostesses Ella Wood and Nadine Bean had planned a picnic at Big Eddy park but due to the showery weather it was postponed. A delicious lunch was enjoyed by the members present. This meeting was the Circle's anniversary and during the afternoon secret pal names were revealed and gifts opened. New pal names were drawn for the coming year.

Laura Carmichael was elected the Circle's new president and Ruth Steers was elected secretary-treasurer. The club thanks Emma MacDonald for her work as president during the last year.

The following members asked to have their names withdrawn from the Circle: Marvel Chalmers, June Ray and Mabel Graves. The club regretted to hear that Mr. Chalmers was ill, also of illness in the Ellis family. The Circle members presented a gift of a pink begonia plant to Mrs. Chalmers.

Those present at this enjoyable anniversary meeting were: Mesdames Freda Biggs and Johnny, Ruby Biggs, Ruth Steers and Mary, Laura Marmichael, Emma MacDonald and Jimmy, Mary Steers, Blanche Millis, Agnes Gibson, Isabel Carmichael and two children and the hostesses, Nadine Bean and son Michael, and Ella Wood. Mrs. Pearl Wilkerson was a guest. Next meeting will be September 17 at Isabel Carmichael's home.

Rebekahs Meet At IOOF Home

A most enjoyable evening was spent by about 35 members of Mt. Heart Rebekah Lodge who visited the I.O.O.F. home in Portland Thursday, August 13. While there they held their regular lodge meeting with Jane Pace, N.G., and Alice Buckner, V.G., presiding.

Before the lodge meeting the program committee put on a comedy skit entitled "Clementine." The skit and group singing was enjoyed and appreciated by the members and the 24 residents of the home who were members of the Rebekah Lodge.

Some of the members who had come early had an opportunity to inspect the home. The F. L. Girls presented a beautiful bedspread to the resident occupying the room sponsored by the Vernonia Lodge.

June Ray, Irma Chance and Louise Hamnett were appointed as a committee to make plans for the next initiation when the degree will be conferred by the Past Noble Grands.

After lodge, delicious refreshments of cookies, ice cream and coffee were served by the committee consisting of Grace Cantwell, Noma Callister and Mathilde Bergerson.
