

Home in Jungle

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

The young couple pressed on inland to the far-off jungle tribe. There they found a hot steamy climate, swarms of insects, an occasional reptile and storms that wrecked huts. They made friends with the native, gave medical aid, common here but unknown there. They mastered the language, invented an alphabet, translated the Bible chapters, opened a school, taught the kiddies.

And from old folk and younger, came converts — they who came out and out for Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. The natives saw a Christian home set up in their midst and that counts big in the jungle. And your messengers saw the heathen lifted out of fear, superstition and sin. May this remind you people of God of your saving work abroad as you present Christ as the Lord and Saviour who indwells them with new life. This space sponsored by a family of the county.

24 Take Coast Trip Saturday

A trip sponsored by the Ambassadors for Christ of the Vernonia Bible Church Saturday was enjoyed by 24 young people.

The group left at 3:30 a.m., driving to Seaside where they dug clams and going on to Short Sands state park for a picnic dinner. They spent the afternoon at Cannon Beach playing softball and from there went to Ecola Park for a wicker roast.

The young people were accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Don Darling, Mrs. J. M. Peachey, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fulton, L. H. Shelley and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Llewellyn, two children, and Miss Meryl Fawcett of Portland who are affiliated with Youth for Christ in Brisbane, Australia.

GEMS OF THOUGHT SELF-MASTERY

He who reigns within himself and rules his passions, desires and fears is more than a king. —Milton

He is a fool who cannot be angry; but he is a wise man who will not. —Old Proverb

Better conquest never canst thou make, than warn thy constant and thy nobler parts against giddy, loose suggestions. —Shakespeare

No man is free who cannot command himself. —Pythagoras

Man is properly self-governed only when he is guided rightly and governed by his Maker, divine: Truth and Love. —Mary Baker Eddy

Those who can command themselves, command others. —Hazlitt

Crusade to Open September 20

Forceful Christian leaders throughout the Greater Portland area, who gave valued assistance to Evangelist Billy Graham in his successful crusade in 1950, are lining up squarely behind Dr. Mervin E. Rosell and his three great team mates for the forthcoming Evangelistic Crusade to be held in the Civic Auditorium, Sunday, September 20 to October 4. Services will be held nightly at 7:30 p.m. and on Sundays at 3:00 p.m.

Laymen and pastors of about 185 evangelistic congregations in the Greater Portland area have placed their spiritual and material resources behind Dr. Rosell's team. Dr. Rosell, known to his supporters as "Merv" Rosell, began his career as an evangelist while in college, and has been gathering momentum and power ever since.

The crusade leaders declare that each member of this powerful team is an outstanding success in his field, consecrated to the service of His Master, and completely worthy of the full support of every Christian in the Greater Portland area.

Joan of Arc was convicted of heresy.

Minister, Wife Feted at Dinner

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Sisler were dinner guests of the Vernonia Ministerial association Friday, August 14, at the Christian church. The dinner was prepared by the ladies of the Christian church and was served during the noon hour.

Besides the guests of honor those present were: Rev. and Mrs. W. A. McBride, Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Russell, Rev. and Mrs. Don Darling, Rev. and Mrs. Leake, and Rev. Lyles, new pastor of the Baptist church. A scripture portion was read by Rev. Darling and Rev. Russell gave expression of appreciation for the work and fellowship of Rev. Sisler. A piano request number was played by Rev. Sisler, and a vocal duet was rendered by Rev. and Mrs. McBride.

Each one present spoke a few words of testimony fulfilling the wishes of the honored guest. The ministers and their wives gave a handkerchief shower for the Sislers. The occasion was closed by everyone singing, "God Be With You." The well wishes and prayers of the Ministerial association go with the Sislers as they depart for their new charge.

Outdoor Service Plan of Church

Sunday, August 30, at 6:30 p.m. the Vernonia Bible church is holding a special outdoor service. Everyone is welcome to come and hear the challenge of the South Pacific presented by Australian young people led by Tom Llewellyn as speaker, Beryl Llewellyn, pianist, and Meryl Fawcett, soprano soloist. Their work in Australia is with Youth for Christ in Brisbane.

Youth for Christ conducts rallies, citywide and country campaigns, radio broadcasting, Bible classes and children's work. For over eighteen months this team has travelled from coast to coast, north in Canada and in the "deep" south telling of the unlimited opportunities for evangelism in Australia and in the islands of Indonesia where Communism is fast gaining ground. This missionary challenge is perhaps one of the most real and vital ones in the world today!

Surgery Performed at Portland Hospital

RIVERVIEW — Charles Allen underwent surgery at St. Vincent hospital Friday, having a growth removed from his mouth. He returned home the same day and is feeling somewhat better.

Olof Jacobson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Otto Carlson to their home at Neetsu for the week end. The Carlsons are living at Natal for the summer months, but drive to their home week ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Parker and children of Empire spent the week end at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Olin. Mr. Parker returned to their home Sunday and Mrs. Parker and the children remained here for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parker and children of Nehalem visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parker, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Hudson visited his mother, Mrs. Opal Hudson, in Portland Sunday. Mrs. Hudson is a practical nurse at the Doernbecker hospital.

Laura, John and Ezra Brewer of Corvallis visited their mother, Mrs. Olin Robbins, from Tuesday until Sunday.

Quartet Scheduled at Timber Friends Church

The Four Flats quartet, twice winners of the Northwest Barber-shop harmony contest at Forest Grove are scheduled to appear Sunday, August 30 at 10:15 a.m. at the Timber Friends church. The Flats, graduates of George Fox college, are a former gospel team for Youth for Christ and have also appeared on the radio.

They will furnish special music Sunday as well as bring the message that morning.
