GEMS OF THOUGHT

REFINEMENT
Refinement is the lifting of one's self upwards from the merely sensual, the effort of the soul to etherealize the common wants and uses of life.

—Henry Ward Beecher
Too great refinement is false delicacy, and true delicacy is solid refinement. —LaRochefoucauld
The necessity for uplifting the race is father to the fact that mind can do it; for mind can impart purity instead of impurity, strength instead of weakness, and health instead of disease.

—Mary Baker Eddy
Refinement creates beauty everywhere. —William Hazlitt
Whenever education and refinement grow away from the common people, they are growing toward selfishness, which is the monster evil of the world.

—Henry Ward Beecher
True delicacy, as true generosity, is more wounded by an act of offence from itself, than to itself. —Lord Greville

Runaway Turned

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

The runaway worked his way across to America and after months of wild life, he found a pick and shovel job in Princeton, N.J. Noons, a young preacher came over and read the Bible to the men as they ate. Out of it the young fellow was converted.

"So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth. It shall not return to me void." God's word, Isaiah 55:11. Next the fellow found work in a piano factory and later went back to see his aged mother. Out of it she also was born into God's eternal family and her word was — "It is what you have become that has changed me." Sum it up. The fellow received Christ as dying for him. New days and ways followed and in the end Christ is to raise him up to eternal glory. And you? Put off the great decision and you sell your soul down the river. — "Now is the day of salvation." 2 Cor. 6:2.
