Week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Huntley were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes and children of Coos Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McCool and children of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Anderson spent the week end in Portland visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mahar spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice and other relatives at Corvallis.

Temple Conducts Annual Roll Call

Vernonia Temple No. 61, Pythian Sisters, held its annual roll call night last Wednesday, November 11. Feature of the evening was the re-obligation ceremony conducted by candlelight.

Plans were made for holding the annual bazaar and food sale at Seawright's Cleaners on December 12. Many beautiful hand made articles were turned in for the sale.

Canned fruit was brought in for the K.P. Home at Vancouver and will be taken to the home soon.

During a recess, Allan York entertained the group with several delightful accordion numbers.

Following adjournment, refreshments were served by Rose Poetter, Grayce Bundy, Peggy Cone and Leta Garner.

The next meeting will be on November 23 and will be a Thanksgiving party. First nomination of officers will also be made at this time.

Dance Class to Meet, Organize Monday

A preliminary meeting of the square dance instruction class being planned by Glen Hawkins is scheduled for Monday evening of next week at the Washington school. In announcing the meeting date he asked that people who plan to attend the lessons be present so a regular meeting night can be arranged.

The meeting next Monday will take place at 7:30 in the east wing basement room.

Official Visit Due On Meeting Night

The next regular meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary will be held on November 24 for the department presidents. Cecele Hafer will make an official visit. The Auxiliary urges all members to be present.

Work Started on Job at Camp

ROCK CREEK — Herb Counts returned from Roseburg and almost immediately started working on a job near Government camp for which Darrell DeVaney has one of the sub contracts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tuttle and Terry of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Lum Rhea and two children of Portland were Sunday visitors at the Carrol Buckley home. Mrs. Tuttle and Mr. Rhea are cousins of Mrs. Buckley's.

Eola DeVaney has had a short vacation at her home here. She has been caring for an elderly woman, who is now residing with a daughter in Roseburg.

Two carloads of Keasey unit members visited a former member, May Mellinger, in Clatskanie. Car trouble made it necessary for them all to return in one car. Betty Brady, Isola Morris, Eda Parker, Mary Christensen, Hilda Keasey, Vivian Counts, May Krieger and Blanche DeWitt made the trip.
