Death Claims Early Settler

MIST — One of our early neighbors and a settler of 45 or 50 years ago passed away last week at a nursing home in Scappoose. She, with her husband, the late Tom Carter, and two sons, Roy and Tom, Jr., lived on the Clatskanie Mountain until left alone when Mrs. Jane Carter moved to Clatskanie a few years ago. Her husband and two sons have passed on too. Mrs. Carter had no known relatives. The funeral was held in Clatskanie Saturday and burial at the Murry Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Donna Coryell has a new TV set.

Mrs. Austin Dowling is entertaining the MHC this Thursday. The WMS was postponed from last Wednesday until this week, Tuesday, on account of the death of Guy Bellingham at Birkenfeld.

A busy week is promised for the Mistites and others who are interested, with the WMS on Tuesday, Garden club Wednesday, Circle meeting Thursday, home demonstration Friday and Saturday night the big program. The high school students that go to Vernonia High are home on account of the damage done to the high school by fire Saturday.

Mrs. Wesley Monroe was a Portland business motorist last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wills from Seattle came down and visited the week end with her folks, the Irving Knowles.
