Found a Mother

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

He grew up a stray and at 19 he enlisted in the army. As a G-I he entered college at 29. Two of the college men, both Christians, asked their mother if they might bring the G-I home for Easter. So they did. Came Easter morning and there was an Easter basket for this fellow also. When it dawned on him that he was as one of the family, he broke down and cried. He had home folks at last. After the Easter services and in the evening, mother went into action. She told the G-I how Christ died for our sins and at last the man took Christ into his heart as Lord and Saviour. No the College wanted him to stay on for he was a new man and he is handling a crew of men, with Christ in his face, voice and decisions. And may you also mother the strays and save souls for the Lord.
