Show Me Thomas

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

"I will not believe that Christ arose from the dead except I see the nail print in His side." So said Doubting Thomas. Eight days later, the doors being bolted and Thomas standing in the midst, Jesus came in and said to him — "Reach hither thy fingers and behold my hands and thrust it into My side and be not faithless but believing." At that Thomas shouts — "My Lord and my God." So Christ proved Himself to Thomas. Later, He showed Himself to above 500 brethren at one time. Christ then went back to glory and sent God, the Holy Spirit to indwell us. Receive Christ as your own Lord and Saviour then die to self that the Holy Spirit may live out through you to the glory of God. This space sponsored by a Seattle family.

Church Represented at Christian Youth Rally

Young people from the First Christian church were represented in the Christian youth rally at the Milwaukie church last Saturday evening by Margaret and Pat Wells. Mrs. Lester Wells accompanied them. One of the interesting entertainment features of the program was the music by The King's Heralds, a trio of trumpeters from Cascade college.
