

Boy Not Scared

BY GEO. N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

Egypt, Of Old — "The Angel of Death will see the blood on the door-post and pass over our house. The Angel is to slay the first-born in every family in Egypt but I will escape, even if I am the first-born. For my father put the blood of a slain lamb on the door-post as Moses told us and the Angel of Death will see the blood and pass over." Ex. 12:12-13.

Came Christ: — Centuries later came Christ. His blood washed away the lad's sins and yours also. — The Lamb of God takes away the sin of the world. God gives you eternal life, only as you believe in Christ as dying for your sins. May you accept Christ as your own Lord and Saviour and so settle the sin question. So act urges the family that sponsors this space.

Mrs. Livingstone Leaves Sunday

On last Wednesday evening, a farewell dinner party was given at the First Christian Church in honor of Mrs. Cassie Livingstone who left Portland Sunday by plane for her new home in Canon City, Colorado.

A large number of her friends were present to pay tribute to her for her able and consecrated service to the church as Bible school superintendent and director of music.

She was presented with a beautiful radio and also a "treasure chest" containing personal cards, letters and gifts.

Ski Trip Taken By Young People

A trip to Mt. Hood Saturday was enjoyed by a number of the young people of the Vernonia Bible church and their friends.

The group stopped at the Chapel of the Hills for devotions which were led by Robert Boesche of Portland.

The day was spent skiing and tobogganing at Timberline Lodge. Those going were: Jacklyn Blake, Loretta Norris, Roy Elliott, Jimmie McFarland, Nadene and Donald Tunnell, Otto Barnell, Joan Peters, Joe and Alice Snook, Don Shafer, Jim Waller, Charlie Harvey, Lorene Stiff and David Cotton.

They were chaperoned by Rev. and Mrs. Don Darling, L. H. Shelley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boesche of Portland.

Church Hears Guest Speaker

A. J. Reising of the Oregon conference of Seventh-day Adventists was guest speaker at the Vernonia SDA church last Saturday.

The congregation witnessed an impressive ordination service in which Ira Peterson, Mist, and Frid Schray, Vernonia, were set apart as elder and deacon respectively.

Choosing as his text for the sermon, following the ordination service, Philippians 3:13, 14, the speaker encouraged his audience to join him in striving during 1954 to be more kind, understanding, complimentary and patient in dealing with others not only in business, but also in the church and at home.

Week Spent at Home Of Son in Seattle

NATAL — Mrs. Ira Peterson spent last week in Seattle with her son and family, the Norman Petersons.

New Years dinner guests at the Devine's were Mr. and Mrs. Max Oblack, Maxine, and Carl and Einar Danielson.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Oblack were in Salem Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Danielson and Mrs. James Swanson and daughter, Margaret, were Wednesday afternoon visitors at the Sam Devine home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Waddell were in Portland last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Devine called at the Gillespie home Tuesday at Taylorville.

Mrs. Robert Mathews and Mrs. George Mathews were in Portland last Monday.

Keystone Class Plans Future Social Events

Keystone class members of the Christian church met at the parsonage Thursday with the teacher, Mrs. Leake, to plan the social activities of the class. A progressive dinner will be held the evening of January 21, Thursday, with Mrs. Earl King as chairman.

On February 14 a "Sweetheart Banquet" will be put on by the class with the men doing the cooking and with Bert Brunman as chef.

Observance of 50th Wedding Being Planned

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wells and family enjoyed Sunday dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Shearer at Multnomah. The afternoon was spent making plans for the 50th wedding anniversary of the ladies parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beck of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Normand and Mrs. Grace Normand spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Layman at Milwaukie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swartz of Kootenai, Idaho visited at the home of Mr and Mrs. George F. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeFord, Thursday and Friday. They also visited Mrs. Swartz's father, George W. Davis, in Vernonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mitchell spent Friday and Saturday in Portland visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hill.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

FRIENDSHIP

A true friend is the gift of God, and he only who made hearts can unite them.

—Robert South

The firmest friendships have been formed in mutual adversity; as iron is most strongly united by the fiercest flame.

—Caleb C. Colton

Friendship must be accompanied by virtue, and always lodged in great and generous minds.

—Joseph Trapp

A man should keep his friendships in constant repair.

—Samuel Johnson

One marvels that a friend can even seem less than beautiful.

—Mary Baker Eddy

When we are young, friends are, like everything else, a matter of course. In the old days we know what it means to have them.

—Edward Grieg

Don't throw away that old garden hose this fall. If it's leaking, just poke some more holes in it with an ice pick, plug the nozzle end, and use it for a lawn or garden soaker.
