Miewes-Vanderzanden Vows Read

In a setting of yellow and white gladiolus, Miss Esty Vanderzanden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vanderzanden became the bride of Conrad Miewes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miewes, at St. Mary's Catholic church, Monday morning. The nuptial mass was performed by Rev. and John Goodrich of Beaverton.

The bride's gown was of ivory brocaded satin with train and her finger-tip lace-edged veil was held in place by a head piece of seed pearls. She carried an orchid on a white ribbon. Miss Patricia Freeman, of Hillsboro, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue taffeta and net formal with shoulder length veil held in place by a wreath of blue flowers. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Ben Miewes of Oakridge acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Leslie McMullen and John Schmidlin.

Mrs. Lloyd Thomas provided appropriate organ music.

At the reception held in the parish hall of the church, Mrs. Mary Spearing, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Dan Vanderzanden of Banks, had charge of the punch and Mrs. Alois Sauer was in charge of the coffee.

The couple are honeymooning at the beaches after which they will be at home at 975 Rose Ave.

OES Social Club Honors Hostess

Nehalem Social club, OES, met at the home of Minnie (Hughes) Ford Wednesday evening, May 12 with 21 members attending.

The June meeting will be cancelled because of Grand Chapter and a particularly busy month for all members. Tentative plans were made for fall projects to be taken up at our September meeting which will be announced later.

The social event of the evening was the presentation of a wedding gift to our charming hostess, Minnie.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Grace Robertson and Gladys Ruhli.
