Past Chief Club Makes Seed Bags

The Past Chief's Club met on Wednesday evening at the home of Edith McFarland on Keasey route, with 12 members present.

Report was made that the seed bag favors to be sent to Supreme Temple at Des Moines, Iowa had been completed. The bags are tiny plastic ones, each containing a small amount of Douglass fir seed. The seed was donated to the club by the Crown Zellerbach Tree Farm, and each bag bears a tag saying "Grow an Oregon Tree, compliments of Crown Zellerbach Tree Farm." The other side bears greetings from Vernonia Temple No. 81, Pythian Sisters. These will be given to delegates from all over the United States and Canada and should be a good bit of advertising for our state and community.

Also underway is the club's project for raising funds for the Knights of Pythias home at Vancouver. Pillowcases are on display at June's Style shop for which tickets are being sold by club members. The drawing will be held at the next club meeting on August 2.

The hostess prize was won by Fern Kullander. Isabel Culbertson received a birthday gift from her secret pal and much hilarity was caused by members learning to use a needle threader given Leta Garner by her secret pal.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and an enjoyable social hour was spent in visiting.

Adventists to Hold Camp Meet local Seventh-day Adventist church, left Tuesday, July 6, to join other ministers of the conference in preparing the large 73 acre camp ground at Gladstone, Oregon for the annual camp meeting to be held July 23 to 31.

Adventists in Oregon have been conducting the largest such religious gathering in the state for years. This will be the 77th camp meeting held by the church in the state.

Since 1930, when the church purchased the old Chantauqua grounds, at Gladstone, the Oregon encampment has been one of the top three in size which the Adventists operate in North America. The present site accommodates 331 permanent cabins, 1200 tents, plus a number of large meeting houses. The largest auditorium has a seating capacity of more than 7,000.

The ministers of the church precede the people to the campgrounds to prepare the buildings, pitch the tents and beautify the grounds for the nine day meet.

In addition to the annual camp meeting the park is used during the year for other religious conventions. In June the church made the large grounds available to state and county Civil Defense agencies and they will also be used in cases of civil defense emergencies.

Former Schoolmates Have Reunion Luncheon

Mrs. Carl Schaumburg was in Portland last Tuesday to attend a luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. Curletto which brought together four ladies who had been chums in grade school when they attended the old Hudson school in Portland, but had not been together for 19 years.

Besides Mrs. Schaumburg and the hostess were Mrs. Thorson from Seattle and Mrs. Fredricks from Oakland, California. One interesting fact that came out in the course of conversations was that Mrs. Fredricks works in the office of the Sherwin-Williams paint company in Oakland and had written letters to the Schaumburg store here without knowing she was corresponding with an old friend.

Mrs. Schaumburg reports a most enjoyable day that brought back many memories and aided all of them in learning the whereabouts of many former schoolmates.
