REPORT TO THE PEOPLE OF VERNONIA

Since our purchase of the Vernonia Cleaners from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cline we have tried to prove only one point . . . That the quality of our drycleaning compares with the best anywhere at the lowest possible price. We have never used any fancy advertising gimmicks to get business . . . Never cut prices or slammed our competitors regardless of our personal views. We know after 37 years in the drycleaning business cheap drycleaning is a poor investment . . . We have never ran when a community needed us, strikes or otherwise. We have tried to measure up to our responsibilities in the community in giving aid to church groups, burnt out families, ministers discounts, cleaning the national and state colors for any group or organization at no cost.

If a manufacturer doesn't think enough of his produce to put in a label you shouldn't either as chances are the quality will not match up to the price and you won't get what you pay for . . . A fine example are the forest green work trousers now on the market . . . some are made with a warped leg to conserve on the fabric to reduce the price. We guarantee our cleaning 100%. The fine quality of your clothes must never be entrusted to a fly by night type of cleaner as they cater to high speed to reduce costs therefor taking too many short cuts in quality to make a low price. Many times our work costs us more than it cost the customer but it has and is paying us by making many fine friends.

Here is a check list to help you in checking the quality of your cleaning.

1. Is the Cleaning wholesaled? (Does someone else do the cleaning? Does he know he is personally working on your clothes.)

2. Odors (Does his high speed methods leave odd odors? Has the unseen perspiration been removed? Perspiration left too long will wear out a garment faster than actual wear.)

3. Lint (Are your pockets full of lint and foreign matter? Has the cuffs been cleaned out to reduce wear on your trousers?)

4. Linings (Are the linings hand finished to block in the style?)

5. Repair (Is someone there at all times to take care of your repairs, are all types of alterations available? Are the minor repairs taken care of without your asking?)

6. The clothes you pay so much for deserve the best in maintenance . . . Send them to a quality cleaner and you'll never regret it.

7. Marks (Does the cleaner mark up your clothes with unsightly ink globs, or put staples and tags in your clothes?) (You will never find a mark of any kind in clothing Seawrights has cleaned.)

We guarantee to do all of the above without your asking or having to check if we have done so . . . It is all in our regular service . . . If not, bring it back as it is an oversight.

"Thank you for being our customer, it is a pleasure to serve you."

Sincerely
Earl N. Seawright
For all of our staff and friends
