

Deborahs Hear Report On 'God Portrays Women'

Mrs. Dan Cason was the hostess for the November meeting, Friday, November 5 of the Deborah Circle. Assistance from the group was planned for the Father and son banquet. Mrs. Stephen Waite reviewed a chapter from the book "God Portrays Women" by Grace McAllister, a former resident of Vancouver, Washington.

The next meeting will be held on the first Tuesday in December.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

—Sylvester Seovel
Neither piety, virtue, nor liberty can long flourish in a community where the education of youth is neglected.

—Peter Cooper
It is on the sound education of the people that the security and destiny of every nation chiefly rest.

Christian Church Ends Campaign

A special campaign of Personal Visitation Evangelism has been in progress at the First Christian Church since October 31 under the leadership of Dallas Meserve, Pastor of the Christian Church of Parkrose. The Campaign has been very successful and will be concluded in the services of next Sunday, November 14th.

The past week a Preaching and Teaching mission has been conducted with the evangelist bringing stirring messages illustrated with charts. These services have aroused much interest in the community and there have been numerous responses to the gospel invitation. Only two more of these messages remain to be delivered on Thursday and Friday evenings at 7:30. The series will be concluded with the services on Sunday morning and evening. On Thursday the evangelist's theme will be "Can a Christian Be a Layman" and on Friday the theme will be "The Afterglow."

The pastor, E. F. Leake, spent last Sunday in Portland supplying the pulpit for Dallas Meserve at the Parkrose Christian Church. He will be in his own pulpit Sunday to close the services and to receive the new members at the reception following the evening church services.

Sunday School Workers Begin Study Course

The newly-formed Sunday School Workers Group of the E.U.B. church held their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Elbert Stiff, Tuesday evening. For a study book, they are using "Spiritual Priorities for Church School Teachers," by Ira David Warner, Bishop of the E.U.B. church of the Pacific area. Rev. F. M. Knoll had charge of the program for the evening. After the lesson, a Bible guessing game was played and the hostess served light refreshments to the twelve members present.

The next meeting will be held December 14, at the home of Mrs. Harry Junken, 1142 Columbia St.

Banquet Plans Near Completion

Plans are nearing completion for the annual Father and Son's banquet to be held next Tuesday evening, November 16, at the Evangelical United Brethren Church at 6:30 p.m. Turkey and all the trimmings comprise the menu which the ladies of the church will prepare and serve.

Speaker for the evening will be Reverend Wilmer Brown, executive director of the northwest region of the National Association of Evangelicals. In 1950, Mr. Brown was privileged to tour western Europe and the Holy Land, visiting 17 countries. He will show colored pictures he took in the Holy Land.

Other entertainment for the evening will be furnished by the high school band, the grade school music department and a male quartet.

Witnesses Will Hold Assembly

Jehovah's witnesses under the sponsorship of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, Inc., of Brooklyn, New York, are planning their second circuit assembly of the year at Forest Grove November 12, 13 and 14.

The convention will draw delegates from Portland, Astoria, Tillamook, Longview and other southern Washington and northern Oregon cities.

N. Kovalak Jr. of New York, will be the featured speaker of the event. He will be on the program all three days of the assembly, and will deliver the principal address at 3 p.m. Sunday, November 14th. His subject is "Does God Really Care?" Some fifteen hundred are expected to attend the event.

All meetings of the local congregation are being cancelled for the week end of the assembly.

Cat-Fit Judkins

GEORGE N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon
She lived with her boy in a little cabin on the edge of our town back East. You see her in calico dress and coat-off coat on a winter's day as she picks up a family wash. Later she again faces the sharp blast to deliver the wash and take the coin that is to keep her and her small boy alive.

You think it not needful to give the Gospel to such as Cat-Fit? God chooses such as Cat-Fit to put to shame the wise and God chooses the weak to put to shame the strong and God inhabites the nobodies with himself and lifts them up so that none can boast in the presence of God that he has lifted himself—1st Corinthians 1:26-29. Let Christ come into your heart as Lord and Saviour. Then read your Bible and pray. Let God build you up.
