Club Members Exchange Gifts

MIST — The M.H.C. met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Mathews. It was the annual birthday dinner and a very good attendance was there. A delicious chicken dinner was served after which there was a short business meeting. The tree was the main attraction. Each one present received a nice gift. The next regular meeting will be the fourth Thursday in January and will meet with Mrs. Ellen Devine.
Shirley Wikstrom was a Portland shopper one day last week. Merry Christmas to the Eagle and to its readers.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stuve and baby arrived here last week from the middle west where they have been living the past two years. He has been in the army, but is out now. She was Beverly Clossner. They may make their home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sundland are spending the holidays in Stockton, California and other California points.

Winema Grange Holds Annual Christmas Party

BIRKENFELD—Winema Grange held their annual Christmas party following Grange meeting last Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bellingham returned from their trip east Thursday, each with a new car.
Mrs. Fred Udey and Mrs. Guy Bellingham were in Clatskanie Wednesday.
Mrs. Art Bellingham was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday after store supplies. She stayed with Mrs. Ferguson, known here as Bertha Orwick, Wednesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Don Jensen were in Birkenfeld Monday night.

Men Return From East With New Buick Thursday

MIST — Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones and son arrived Thursday back from the East where they went to get a new car.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beach were callers of the George Jones Sunday.
The Austin Dowlings are expecting guests from Sweet Home over the holidays.
News brings us reports of the illness and consequent operation undergone by Mrs. Anna Wallace of Seaside, who formerly lived here.
The Harry Reynolds are expecting a house full of guests for the holidays.
Claude Johnson is ill with the flu.

First Entry In for Ballad Contest

The Vancouver, Washington Quarternotes are the first official entry in the 1955 All-Northwest Barber Shop Ballad contest, Chairman Eddie McVay announces.
The Quarternotes, who placed fourth in last February's contest, have signed the register and paid their $5 entry fee, McVay said.
Plans are well under way for the ninth annual Gay Nineties festival, scheduled three days, February 24-25-26. A women's quartet contest will be held for the first time on the opening evening, February 24.
Entries for both men's and women's quartet competition are now being accepted. The men will compete in eliminations on Friday evening, with the men's finals on Saturday night. Male quartets will sing for $1000 in prize money. The Forceps Four of Portland are defending champions. Women's quartets will sing for $490 in prizes and a Pacific Northwest women's title.

Service Man Has Leave

BIRKENFELD — Chuck Robbins is home on a 30-day leave. He has been overseas for some time. He has been visiting his friends and relatives here.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson and children of Portland spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jepson and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jepson.

The Bryan Winslows and Fred Buschs are driving new cars. Mrs. Fred Udey and Mrs. Zella Bellingham were in Portland Friday.
