YESTERDAYS

FIVE YEARS AGO

From The Eagle, January 12, 1950

Recent heavy snow and Monday night's wind caused power line outages and disruption of telephone service. Highway travel was difficult and school buses on Keasey and Pebble Creek routes were unable to make runs. Eighteen inches of snow fell during the week in addition to 13 inches that had fallen previously.

A hot lunch program had a successful start this week at the Mist grade school according to Mrs. Aldon Ashley, chairman of the P.T.A. project. Work of cooking and serving is done by members who volunteer such help.

The Columbia Encampment No. 89 installed Loren Atkins as Chief Patriarch, Wm. D. Shafer as scribe and Carl Davis, treasurer at ceremonies conducted at the I.O.O.F. hall by Bob Spencer, district deputy Chief Patriarch.

TEN YEARS AGO

From The Eagle, January 11, 1945

Ed Roediger assumed the Seapoose and Keasey mail routes which had been carried the past several years by Charles Alsdorf who is now moving to eastern Oregon for his health.

The Vernonia golf course was sold this week by Lum Brown to Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hess of Portland.

Bob Thompson took over the operation of the school bus on the Stoney Point route this week. It was formerly driven by Herb Condit who sold out to Thompson because of ill health.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

From The Eagle, January 12, 1940

Chickenpox, whooping cough, and flu caused extensive absences in both grade and high schools this week.

Rainbow girls at their Monday night meeting elected Myrtle Stacey worthy advisor and Heidi Reich, associate advisor. Others elected were Elsie Duncan, Charity; Joanne Nichols, hope; Pauline Rollins, faith; Lillian Laird, secretary and Jonnibel Hatfield, treasurer.
