

He Has His Day

GEORGE N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

We of today, have Monday, Tuesday and so on for our week. Just so, God also has his day. There was his Day of the Law, when God put the Hebrews under the Ten Commandments. At the end, God sent Christ whose holy life showed that by keeping the law, men were blessed. When Christ cried—"It is finished," the test under the law ended. Then came the present Day of Grace. Under this Day, we of here and now live. This day is now 1900 years along. From all mankind—from the good and the wicked—God is now calling out a people for his name. The Bible says that with the roll-call rounded out and the last name on, this present age comes to an end.

Sum It Up: Our present day of today is God's day when he calls men to be saved. See Acts 15:13-19. Let your heart lay hold on Christ as dying for your sins. Then by Bible and prayer, grow up. Over and over, the Bible asks—Where will you spend eternity? This message sent by a family of the county.
