

Ladies Attend Yamhill Meeting

Lady June Ray, president; Lady Marie Atkins, vice president; Lady Myrtle Oakes, Jr. past president of Auxiliary Washington No. 14 of Hillsboro, attended the regular meeting Thursday evening, April 7 of Yamhill Auxiliary No. 6.

Salem Auxiliary No. 11 had eight members present. There were introductions of association officers and several were present, one being Lady June Ray of Vernonia, association guard.

There were several past associate president and one past president of the Rebekah assembly, Olive Ramey, of Hillsboro.

After the meeting adjourned, everyone took part in a cake walk, after which refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Grade Champion Team Given Dinner, Party

April 5, the Washington school champion basketball team, other members of the basketball squad, their coach, James Johns and the other men of the elementary school faculty were entertained with a noon luncheon by the American Legion Auxiliary as recognition of the splendid record made during the past season.

Another event in their honor has been arranged for this Friday evening when they will be the guests of the PEP club at a skating party.

Nehalem Circle Seats Officers

Installation of officers was held by Nehalem Circle No. 881, Neighbors of Woodcraft, at the IOOF hall April 7 with Catherine Lentz acting as installing officer. Erma Johnson was installed as guardian neighbor for another year and is supported by an excellent corps of officers. June Willis made the presentation of a past guardian's pin to Catherine Lentz.

Marian Casgel was initiated into the circle that evening also. Margaret Kreider, general representative, and Roy Peters, field manager were present and talked about the district meeting to be held at the Woodcraft building in Portland April 27 and 28. Delegates elected to attend this meet are Alice Lindsay and Erma Johnson and alternates are Nola Brady and Catherine Lentz.

After the meeting, refreshments were served at tables decorated with daffodils and each neighbor received an Easter card. Some gifts were received from secret pals also.

The Handcraft club will meet April 22 at the home of Nona Lankston at 8:00 p.m. Also, a Mother's Day program will be presented at the circle meeting May 5.
