

V.F.W. Members Attend Banquet

A veteran's banquet was held at the Shrine hall in St. Helens Monday night in honor of national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Merton Tice, with almost 400 present.

Attending from the local post and auxiliary were: Commander Ralph Hartman and his wife, Imogene; Albert Brunsmann, quartermaster who is also deputy chief of staff of the Department of Oregon; Earl Eckerson; Jim Cox, member of the civil service committee for the Department of Oregon and his wife Myrtle;

Kenneth Anderson, senior vice commander of District II and Mrs. Maeva Brimmer, president of the local auxiliary.

District II of the Department of Oregon VFW was given the honor of this visit of the National Commander because of its high quota of paid-up members and because it is the only district in the state with two department officers both of whom are members of the Vernonia post.

John Schumn, quartermaster of the Department of Oregon acted as master of ceremonies and introduced national and department officers who were present, including the commander of the World War club post 53 of Portland which is the largest post of that organization in the world and has over 800 members, most of them also members of the VFW. Also present were officers of the DAV (Disabled American Veterans).

National Commander Tice spoke on the positive way of winning the war against communism by stressing the advantages of democracy.

Pythian Sisters Plan For Seaside Convention

Vernonia Temple No. 61 Pythian Sisters, met last Wednesday night for the regular exemplification of ritualistic work and transaction of business.

Plans were made for attending the district convention at Seaside April 23. This temple will exemplify the ritualistic closing and provide an entertainment number. Also, Margaret Cone will act as convention treasurer. Following adjournment, delicious lemon pie and coffee were served at tables decorated in a yellow and orchid color scheme by Alice Weed and Margaret Cone. The hostess prize was drawn by Jennie Stanley.

Dancing, Refreshments Lure Do-Si-Do Members

Do-Si-Do Square dance club members and friends are reminded that Saturday night, April 23, is the time to gather at the VFW hall for another evening of dancing to Glen Hawkins calling. Refreshments will be potluck.

Vernonia Future Teachers Guests of Tau Chapter

Tau Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma of Clatsop-Columbia counties, entertained the Future Teachers of the area at a luncheon at Zion Church, Astoria, Oregon recently.

Delbert Moore, Astoria, played three violin selections, accompanied by Miss Ethel Wicks.

Mrs. Irene Halberg, state elementary supervisor, Salem, discussed the vocational field of teaching, urging the girls to start into the field with the idea of becoming career teachers.

The Future Teachers who were guests of the chapter were: Mary Ann Jensen, Charlotte Anderson, Trudy Schenk, Florence Palmrose and Norine Fulmer from Astoria; Rita Mae Hazen, Grace Quinn and Alberta Anderson, Clatskanie; Alice Clark, Pati Baseel, Marilyn Romani, Irene Ashberry and Beverly Olson, St. Helens; and Nadine Tunnell, Joyce Akers and Sharon Hamilton, Vernonia.

Nehalem Social Club Meets With President

Nehalem Social club met at the home of Mrs. Sam Hearing Sr. Wednesday, April 13 with 19 members present. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Wilbur Davis and Mrs. Sam Hearing Jr.

Mrs. Wilbur Wilson resigned as secretary because of illness and Mrs. Alvah Swanson was elected to serve for the remaining portion of the year.

After a short business meeting a pleasant social evening was spent. Mrs. George Tolson of Timber will be hostess for the next meeting May 11. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Farrell West and Mrs. Lee Branson.

VFW Auxiliary Expects Visitor Tuesday Night

Members of the VFW auxiliary are especially invited to come to the regular meeting being held Tuesday night, April 26 at the hall.

A visitor is expected with a message of interest to all members. After the meeting there will be a cake walk and refreshments.

Perfume History PEO Program

Members of Chapter BS of the PEO Sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. Judd Greenman Tuesday evening, April 12.

Mrs. Ben Brickel, who was in charge of the program, gave a most interesting and informative talk on the history of perfume, telling of its origin which dates to the Garden of Eden, and of the bases used in the manufacturing of the various scents. The first known recipe for perfume, or incense as it was called then, was found in the Bible. The highlight of the program was the perfume type test given by Mrs. Brickel, who had a set of vials containing seven basic types of perfume.

The next meeting of the sisterhood will be held at the home of Mrs. Ben Brickel, Tuesday evening, April 26, with Mrs. Evelyn Heath in charge of the program.

Pinochle Club Meets At Riverview Home

The Friendly Pinochle club met at the home of Agnes Gibson in Riverview last Friday afternoon for a delicious dessert luncheon and an afternoon of play.

Marie Sauer held high score and Margaret Vanderzanden, low. The next meeting will be at the home of Margaret Vanderzanden April 22.
