Program on Modern Music Presented to Study Club

The Vernonia Study club met at the home of Mrs. Don Campbell May 21.

Mrs. R. D. Eby gave a comprehensive and interesting program on modern music. She discussed recordings of all types, hi fidelity, long play records, the revival of old tunes and popular music using melodies from old classics, music used in industry and in the treatment of types of mental illness, the use of music in offices and beauty shops, on the farm, and many other places.

She also told of the origin of American jazz and of folk songs and westerns.

The final meeting of the year was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Sandon with the annual potluck dinner and revealing of birthday friends.

VFW, Auxiliary Seat Officers

At joint installation ceremonies held Tuesday night, Smith-Christensen Post No. 3763, VFW and the Auxiliary seated new officers for the coming year.

L. H. Henderson, past commander of the Department of Oregon, acted as installing officer for the post. Installed were: commander, Don G. Campbell; senior vice-commander, Leland Pugsley; junior vice-commander, Wm. Wilcoxon; judge advocate, James G. Cox; chaplain, Eddie Poetter; surgeon, Dr. E. Hampton; quartermaster, Albert Brunson and adjutant, James G. Cox.

Mrs. Clarice Henderson, Department of Oregon president, installed the auxiliary officers with the assistance of an installing team she brought with her which included conductress, assistant conductress, four color bearers, musician and guard. Installed were: president, Maeva M. Brimmer; senior vice-president, Celia Laird; junior vice-president, Myrtle Cox; secretary, Betty Hawken; treasurer, Margaret Davies; chaplain, Bessie Spofford; guard, Eva Poynter; conductress, Dorothy Walker; color bearers, Kathryn Wyckoff, Ina Bateman, Shirley Huss and Mary Lee Dumbord; and trusees, Alice Ade and Margaret Walrath.

Besides the installing officers, a number of other visitors were present from out of town.

Delicious refreshments of salads, relishes, sandwiches, pie and coffee were served by a committee headed by Myrtle Cox.

A report on the VFW Buddy Poppy sale showed a total of $91.85. Of this $50 went to pay for the 1000 poppies purchased for the sale and the remainder was divided between the post and auxiliary for use in assistance to needy veterans and their families.

Birthday Celebrated by Friendly Pinochle Club

Eleanor Thompson was hostess for the meeting of the Friendly Pinochle club on May 20 and served a delicious cherry dessert to the members before they began the afternoon's play. A very sedate afternoon resulted in high score for Agnes Gibson and low for Marie Sauer.

May 27, the club met again at the home of Marie Shafer. Surprise feature of the afternoon came just after the members had finished the dessert luncheon of cake and ice cream when a special decorated birthday cake was placed in front of Cora Lange and the members serenaded her with the happy birthday song. The cake was a gift from her daughter Margie DeHart and was served later in the afternoon when play had again sharpened appetites.

High score was held by Margaret Vanderzanden and low by Julia Davis. Mrs. Cora Moore was a guest for the afternoon, playing for Marie Sauer.
