

Vows Exchanged At Bride's Home

Miss Beverly Ann Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Rice of Hillsboro, became the bride of Ralph Roy Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Berg of Birkenfeld, at an impressive ceremony read by Rev. John Schirling of the Baptist church at the home of the bride's parents at Hillsboro, Sunday afternoon, July 3.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length white gown with cap of lace and seed pearls and carried a nosegay of white carnations and stephanotis.

Attendants were Miss Ruby Marie Rice, sister of the bride, who wore a pastel blue ballerina length frock and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and stephanotis, and Norman Mills of Birkenfeld.

A reception followed the ceremony at which Ethel Larson cut the wedding cake; Lila Sodeback poured coffee; Clarence Soderback served the ices and Charles Robbins the punch. Assisting about the rooms were Barbara Robbins and Nellie Berg. Mabel Anderson took care of the guest book and Dorothy Loss had charge of the gift table.

For the wedding trip to California, Mrs. Berg wore a light blue suit with white accessories and her wedding corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Berg are now at home at Gualala, California.

Attending the wedding from this vicinity were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Berg and family and Mrs. Ethel Larson from Birkenfeld and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Louis Carmichael and aunt, Mrs. Wm. Carmichael of Vernonia.

Pacific Honor Roll Lists Vernonia Boy

Bill Braun, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Braun of Vernonia, is listed on the spring semester honor roll at Pacific university for earning a grade point average of 3. or higher according to figures recently released from the registrar's office.

Braun, a freshman majoring in education, is active in college basketball and has served as vice-president of his class.

Steers Roundup Week End Event

A reunion for the family of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Steers Sr. was sparked by the visit here of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Steers and their three sons from Los Angeles, California who are on their way to Washington, D.C. to make their home and last week end was the occasion for the gathering at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Steers Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Steers Jr. of 23 members of the clan which represented four generations.

Besides the two sons mentioned above, another son and two daughters and their families were here. They were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Steers and two daughters from Ketchikan, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Kuehn and family from Elgin, Oregon and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bennett from Sumner, Washington.

Also here were the M. B. Steers Jr.'s two daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peterson and son David from Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Smith from Sweet Home.

This was the first time all five of the Steers children had been together with their parents for eleven years and in that time ten new members had been added to the families.

Mrs. Steers Jr. who had been instrumental in getting the group together said it was indeed a "Roundup of Steers" for they literally rounded them up and got them all here for the reunion.

The Kuehns brought Mary Steers home from Elgin and took back with them their son Larry who had been here for several weeks picking berries. However, Mary wasn't ready to stay home so went to Sweet Home with her sister, Mrs. Ronald Smith, for a visit.

Ethel Waddell Wed At Natal

Miss Ethel Mae Waddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Waddell of Mist, became the bride of Mr. Norman R. Comb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Comb of McMinnville, at a 3:30 afternoon ceremony last Sunday, July 17 at the Natal grange hall and was the first such ceremony to ever be performed there. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white gladioli and blue delphinium.

The impressive double ring ceremony was read by the Reverend Ernest Ralston of the First Conservative Baptist church of McMinnville in the presence of about 125 relatives and friends. Wedding music was played by Maxine O'Black and Bernard Dowling sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length wedding gown of white embroidered nylon over light blue taffeta with an elbow length veil caught with a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with an orchid arranged with a ribbon shower.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Joan Marie Sittion of McMinnville, cousin of the bride, who wore a ballerina length gown of light blue taffeta with blue nylon net over skirt and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and Esther Reed daisies.

Best man was John R. Ganor of Hillsboro and ushers were Ralph Waddell of Clatskanie and Donald Faust of Estacada.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Walter Mathews served the wedding cake. Mrs. Claud R. Mickey, aunt of the bride presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Sam Devine. Pouring coffee was Mrs. R. S. Lindsay who was assisted by Mrs. Myrtle Mathews and Mrs. Charles Hanson.

Mrs. Eunice Hopkins and Mrs. Pearl Davis, aunt of the bride, had charge of the gift table and Doris Comb, sister of the groom, took care of the guest book.

For the wedding trip on which the couple went to Jasper National park in Canada, the bride wore a light blue suit with navy and white accessories. They plan to return about July 31 and will make their home at 11495 Blain St., in McMinnville.

The bride is well known here, having lived in the Mist community all her life. She is a graduate of Vernonia high school and since then has been employed with the Oregon Mutual Insurance company at McMinnville.

House Warming Given At Tupper's New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tupper were given a surprise house warming Sunday at their new home which they moved to recently on Apiary road. The affair was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolff who were joined by their week end guests and others who came Sunday for the occasion. The group enjoyed a picnic dinner on the creek near the Tupper home after which they presented the Tupper's with a set of dishes and canister set.

Week end guests of the Wolff's who participated in the affair were Mr. and Mrs. George Turner and daughters Tawny and Lori Anne and Mr. and Mrs. Max Gilenke and daughter Elsie of Portland. Additional guests who came Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zimmerman from Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haag and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Kushn of Portland were here on Saturday, also, but did not stay over for the Sunday party.

Minnesota Picnic Set For Jantzen Beach Park

The annual Minnesota picnic is scheduled for Jantzen Beach Park on July 31 and is for all former Minnesotans who now reside in the Pacific Northwest.

The program is to begin at 2:00 p.m. with music by a ten piece accordian band. Then, Governor Patterson will speak to the group at 2:30 p.m. Following this a program of five numbers will be presented by The Journal Juniors. The rest of the time will be given over to visiting and getting acquainted.

Not long ago, you had to figure on spending a lot of money if you wanted to step up to a big luxury car. Then along came this new Dodge—and things happened!

People who were used to paying a thousand dollars more found that Dodge offered all they could desire—at a sensible price.

Owners of medium-priced cars discovered that for the same amount of money, or less, the new Dodge provided much more roominess, comfort, and more pride.

More, small-car owners found that several models of this big new Dodge even cost less than a tricked-up "lightweight."

Right off the bat, Dodge sales doubled! And we're taking advantage of skyrocketing sales to make you a "Drive It Home" deal you can't turn down. Come in today!
