

4-H Officers Training Meeting Rescheduled

The 4-H club officers training meeting at McBride grade school in St. Helens has been re-scheduled for December 3.

This meeting formerly scheduled for November 12 had to be postponed because of bad weather and treacherous highway conditions.

The program and place of meeting will remain the same. Registration will be at 10:15 a.m. The call to order at 10:30 a.m. The meeting will adjourn at 2:30 p.m.

Well arranged time is the surest mark of a well-arranged mind.

Livestock Meet Attendance Low

Weather played havoc with attendance at the 20th annual meeting of the Western Oregon Livestock association at Gearhart last week. At this meeting, attendance reached a peak of about 60, whereas up to two hundred would be somewhat more normal.

November was picked for the dates for this meeting this year because of bad weather that has been experienced in January or February of previous years. Columbia county acted as co-host of this meeting along with Clatsop county.

Attending the meeting from Columbia county were Mr. and Mrs. Kent Magruder, Mr. and Mrs. George Poysky, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Luxford, Mrs. Roma Brown, Virgil Lance and Don Coin Waldrod. Luxford is vice-president of the Columbia county association, and Magruder was chairman of the program committee as well as a member of some of the Western Oregon's committees.

Garland Meador, president of the Oregon Cattlemen's association, reported on the activities of his association and indicated that cattlemen needed to have united action to maintain their position in our economy and to protect themselves from undesirable situations that arise. A case cited in example was a recent proposed change in freight rates, wherein a differential in the price of dressed meats moving to the west coast would be allowed. The price of dressed meats going east would be higher.

Hubert Willoughby, Harrisburg, was elected president of the association and Sam Dement, Coquille, was elected vice-president.

County Vet Tax Totals $14,691

Veterans with homes and farms financed by the Oregon veterans' loan program paid state property taxes on 10,832 pieces of property in the amount of $1,340,832 for the year 1955-56. Director H. C. Saalfeld of the department of veterans' affairs reported this week.

In Columbia county, 162 veterans with homes and farms financed by the state loan paid $14,691.24 on their real property.

The veteran doesn't pay these taxes direct to the tax collector. He pays one-twelfth of them every month to the department of veterans' affairs along with his monthly loan repayment. The department in turn pays the tax collector, and does it in advance of the November 15 deadline in order to give the veteran the advantage of a 3 per cent discount.

The tax savings effected for the 10,832 property holders this year amounted to $38,376. The average tax paid by each veteran was $114.55, compared to last year's $106.24.

Ingratitude is a mask of selfishness. —Anonymous

While no offering can liquidate one's debt of gratitude to God, the fervent heart and willing hand are not unknown to nor unwarded by Him. —Mary Baker Eddy

Not every one who discharges his debts of gratitude can plume himself on being grateful. —La Rochefoucauld

One of the best things about a very little child is that he never thanks you for doing things for him—He is so sure you want to. —Maurice Harspool

Many favors which God giveth us ravel out for want of hemming; through our own unthankfulness; for though prayer purchaseth blessings, giving praise doth keep the quiet possession of them. —Thomas Fuller

Heavy Damage Noted From Freeze on Shrubs

Many of our horticultural plants were not completely dormant at the time of the recent freezing weather, or perhaps some of the species were not sufficiently hardy to stand such weather. At any rate there is considerable damage showing up. The new growth on laurel has been killed, and this is also true on some of the latest leaves of camellias.

Instances of this kind point up the importance of delaying pruning until the danger of severe winter is past. A certain amount of winter killing is not unusual, but if pruning is delayed, all such wood can be removed.

wage earners rights in Oregon

Subject: Minimum on Women's Pay

First hand knowledge of particular regulations is important in conducting business affairs. These questions answered by the State Bureau of Labor may be some you have been pondering.

Q. Doesn't Oregon have a minimum wage law for women?

A. Oregon does not have one overall minimum wage for women workers but sets specific minimums for individual occupations. Under the wage and hour law a legal minimum wage has been fixed governing all industrial employment of women in the state.

Q. What are the minimum wages for women in (1) a store, (2) a factory, (3) a hospital, (4) an office, (5) a restaurant?

A. (1) Mercantile 70c, (3) Manufacturing 65c, (3) Hospital 65c, (4) Office 75c, (5) Public House-keeping 65c.

Q. May women be paid on a piece work or commission basis?

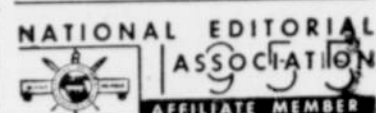

A. A woman may be paid on such a basis if the average wage is equal to or exceeds the legal minimum for the particular occupation in which she is employed.

If you have a question, write Commissioner Norman O. Nilsen, State Bureau of Labor, Salem, Oregon.
