

Christ Healed Her

GEORGE N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

For 12 years she suffered from a chronic disease. Her money was gone and she grew no better—in fact worse. When she heard that Jesus was near, she edged through the crowd to touch His garment and he instantly healed. Jesus demanded who had touched His garment for He knew that saving faith was back of it. The woman confessed to having touched His garment and Jesus said—"Go in peace; your faith has saved you. — Mark 5th.

Now fix your eye on a mother of today who morning by morning, worried lest the school bus be wrecked and her kiddie injured. Finally she left her fears with the Lord and He took away her worries.

Now the point is that both women had living faith; not just head knowledge. God saves folks who believe that Christ died for their sins. Depend on good works to save you and you die lost.

Fall Festival Voted Success

The moderation of the weather last week end permitted a large number of people to attend the Fall Festival of the St. Mary's parish and make it a big success. Prizes were awarded as follows: baby beef, DeVere Hershey; afghan, Melvin Schwab; deep fat fryer, Melvin Lardy; copper thermometer, Mrs. Vern Dodds; ceramic planter, Mrs. R. S. Lindsay; candle on wrought iron stand, John Grady and electric clock, Mrs. Paul Gordon. The society states that they still have available copies of the cook book, Favorite Recipes, and they can be secured from any of the members.
