

Explorer Scouts Attend Dance, Training Course

The first Sunset Trail Explorer Scout dance which was held at the Beaverton high school May 10 was attended by Truman Knight, explorer advisor, and his wife Charmay, and David Linn who escorted Carol Bryant and Lee Harmon who escorted Darlene May.

A court of awards was held during the intermission at which David and Lee received their Star Scout badges.

May 11 and 12, Explorer Advisor Knight and David Linn attended the last half of the leaders' training course at the Portland training center and received instruction on first aid, conservation, money making projects, compass use, search for lost persons and other projects.

Surprise Shower Given by Unit

"Touchups on Wood Furniture" was the lesson given by Mrs. Melvin Bergerson and Mrs. Antone Smejkal for the Timber Rt. Extension unit at the Vernonia grange hall on May 8. Hostesses for the 11 regular members and one visitor were Mrs. Ed Crawford and Mrs. Walter Workman.

Mrs. Antone Smejkal gave a report on program planning and the homemakers festival at Rainier. Mrs. Oren Weed gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Ed Crawford reported on the display of Timber Rt. unit at the homemakers festival and presented the unit with the gold seal received for being a standard unit. Mrs. Joe Baker asked the members for articles made through the extension program year to display at the county fair in August and Mrs. Walter Workman was appointed as program planning alternate. Mrs. Melvin Bergerson and Mrs. Oren Weed had 100% attendance at the unit meetings.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Richard Jensen was surprised with a pink and blue shower.

Top Men Busy

GEORGE N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

Those top men there in Jerusalem had no use for Christ. He raised the dead and created new eyes for folks born blind. These, the top men could not do. The common people loved Christ and were going over to Him. So it was, the top men saw themselves slipping, and they must get Christ out of the way. So they bring Him to trial for saying He was God's Son. To so say was a crime, punishable by death. At the trial that followed Christ not only said He was the Son of God but that He would be seen sitting at the right hand of God. At this, they gave Him over to die but it was on His own say-so. — "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that if you believe on Him as your own Lord and Saviour, you shall not die but have eternal life."
